Miss Ethel Susan Moore Weds Garrett P. Raymond in Starke

STARKE, Aug. 8—The marriage of Miss Ethel Susan Moore and Garrett Paul Raymond was an event of Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, L. V. Moore, the ring ceremony being performed by the Rev. C. B. Price, in the presence of the immediate family.

The living room, where the marriage was performed, was decorated with pink radiance roses, gladioli, crape myrtle and fern arranged in floor baskets and wall vases. Just prior to the entrance of the bridal party John H. Powell sang "O Promise Me." (DeKoven). The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her sister, Miss Amy Moore, as maid of honor. Mr. Raymond had as his best man, W. T. Shiver of Jacksonville.

The bride's dress was of pink silk Romeo crepe, fashioned on simple lines, and her flowers were a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Amy Moore chose for her dress a silk crepe, the color being ashes of roses, and her corsage was of pink radiance roses and fern. Mrs. Ruby Raymond, mother of the bridegroom, wore a frock of blue silk crepe with black accessories. A shoulder corsage of pink roses completed her costume.

The bride is the daughter of Leonard Vincent Moore and the late Malinda Moore. She was graduated from the Bradford High School and is an active worker in the Starke Woodman Circle. Mr. Raymond is a native of Nova Scotia but has resided in Florida for 12 years. He is a son of Mrs. Ruby Raymond and the late Rev. G. P. Raymond, who prior to his death was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Starke.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and later Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left for a short wedding trip. The bride traveled in a navy blue figured silk with matching accessories. The young couple will make their home in Starke.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Ruby Raymond and son, Eddie, of Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shiver, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moore, all of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Searing and Mrs. Green Honored.

Mrs. E. L. Matthews and sister, Miss Madge Middleton, entertained Wednesday morning at bridge, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Middleton, the party being given in honor of Mrs. Earl B. Searing, a recent bride, and Mrs. R. A. Green, who is spending the Summer here. The bridge tables were arranged in the sun parlor, which was decorated with asters, roses and other seasonal flowers.

Mrs. George Manassa made high score and won the prize, and a gift was presented to each of the honor guests.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. P. Burns, of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Isabel Monteith, of Phoenixville, Pa.
