Dear Board Members and friends of FBHS,

There are three things I need to convey in this newsletter. Then I need to leave as much room as possible for pictures from our Sesquicentennial Celebration at the Clifton Mansion site near Madison.

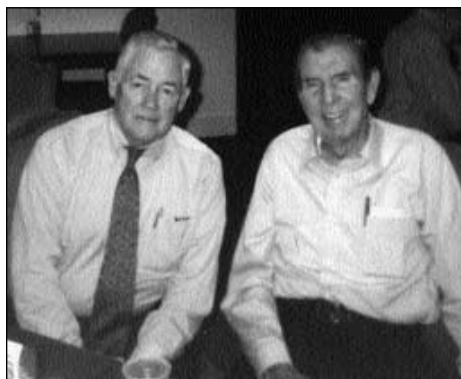

First, last month's trivia question and answer. What family had three brothers on the same Southern Baptist Convention program in St. Louis, and one organized Druid Hill in Atlanta, one was pastor of First Baptist Church in Raleigh, North Carolina, and one was pastor in Florida? It was the O Kelley brothers. Nathaniel (1866-1946) organized Druid Hill, T. W. was pastor in Raleigh, and Franklin (1871-1945) served as pastor in Perry, Florida. In 1913 at the St. Louis Convention, Frank read the Scripture, N. B. led in prayer, and T. W. preached the convention sermon from II Corinthians 8:4.

Second, welcome to Rachel Godwin, Joe Butler, Judge E. B. Browning, Jr., and Linda DeMott as four new lifetime members. We now have 25.

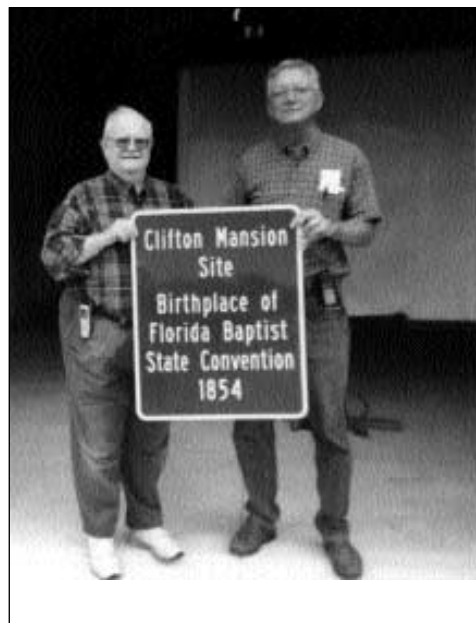

Third, what a wonderful day we had in Madison on November 20, 2004. The photos were made by Marvin Green, Mayo, Florida and we hope they will give you some idea of just how great the day was.

Honoring those who honor Christ,

Jerry M. Windsor
