 - d) The VBS Clinic April 29 at Fellowship was announced.
11. Phil Heard, pastor of Pine Grove and Vice Moderator, gave the Committee on Committees Report. Three recommendations were presented:
 - 1) The terms of office of certain previously elected members be adjusted as indicated in the report in order to coincide with the bylaws which state: "Membership on the standing committees excluding the Executive Committee shall be on a rotating basis, with the terms of one-third of the members expiring each year, after the respective members have served for three years." This would apply only to the three committees which have five members each. They were originally elected to serve five years, rather than three as specified.
 - 2) The bylaws be changed so that the associational secretary-treasurer (who rotates off the budget committee this year) would continue to serve as an ex officio member of this committee, in addition to the five members currently called for in the by-laws.
 - 3) The by-laws be changed so that the Youth Activities Committee be composed of three adult members, exclusive of the Youth Rally Officers which are elected by the Youth Rally at their March meeting. This committee would be nominated by the committee on committees on a rotating basis along with other committees for election at the semi-annual meeting. This recommendation would not affect the way the youth officers are currently elected except that they would not need to be submitted to the committee on committees for associational approval. Committee assignments are as follows: Budget - Ann Sapp (1996);

Camp - Gary Abbott (1996); Evangelism - Vernon Howard (1996); Nominating - Elaine Holden (1996); Missions - Wayne Hudson (1996); United Christian Action - Larry Bell (1996). Phil Heard moved the adoption of the report seconded by Bill Floyd and carried.

12. Moderator Manning J. Hicks, Jr. noted that changes in the bylaws require approval at the Annual Meeting (October), a committee needs to be appointed; Phil Heard was appointed to chair this Constitution/Bylaws Committee. Other members will be appointed at a later date.
13. Recommendations from the Nominating Committee were given by David Smith, Madison First, and are as follows: General Officers: Moderator - Manning J. by Erika Scott, Greenville, and are as follows: 1) Target children (5 years through sixth grade) on odd months and youth (7th grade through college on even months). Woman's Missionary Union

Lead On!

Through the leadership of the Holy Spirit, Middle Florida W.M.U. has endeavored to encourage the women, girls and yes, men, of our churches to be channels for mission work.

Three rallies were enjoyed plus the Joint Brotherhood/WMU meeting.

A Tribute to Miss Nita Ruth McCullough was given by Marantha Howard in November at Mayo Baptist Church where we were blessed to hear Rev. James Darnell.

In February the Rally was at the Lee First Baptist Church and was the beginning of the World Mission Conference which gave everyone opportunity to meet all the missionaries taking part and were challenged by a message from Brother Doug Knapp.

Our hearts were touched in April at our annual Prayer Retreat at Pickett Lake. As ladies from five Associations came together, they joined hearts and minds to pray for our Lord to "Enlarge Our Vision."

Margie Bruzer of Family Ministries brought reality to us as she gave an eyewitness account of the work of Family Ministries emphasizing Children's Homes and unwed teen pregnancies.

As we attempt great things in His Name, I pray we will press on to growth, to faithful service, and to the fulfillment of God's desire that every man and woman shall know of His saving love.

Discipleship Training

Last November we had an exciting "M" Night, with Jim Chavis as our guest speaker. With your help and participation, we had over 200 in attendance.

On August 31st this year, we held our Key Leader Workshop and had a total of ten attending the Discipleship Training session.

November 22, we are looking forward to another great "M" Night. I am pleased to announce that Dr. Jerry Passmore, our state Evangelism Director, will be the speaker. In the near future, I will be contacting some of you for your help in planning this meeting. In the past, you have volunteered your services so well, I feel sure this year will be exciting and a joy. I look forward to working with each of you again.

On January 29, 1994, we plan to have a Baptist Doctrine Study. Further details will be coming soon.

On April 2, 1994, the State Bible Drill and Speaker's Tournament will be held at Graceville, Florida. If any of our churches are planning to enter either of these, please let me know.

On September 19-20, 1994, we are planning a L.I.F.E./LIFE Support Seminar. This will be 2 in-depth training courses for leaders in our churches who will lead in-depth disciplining courses in their own respective churches. It will be a five hour event. You will be receiving a letter soon listing the 15 different courses available, and you will be asked to pick the 2 you would like to attend. After compiling these, I will pick the 2 with the most votes.

If there is any way I can be of assistance to you and your church, feel free to call on me. I want to help you any way I can.

Pastoral Ministries

Pastoral Ministries is one of the key programs of the church. It is supported by the Pastoral Ministries Department of the Florida Baptist Convention.

Pastoral Ministries went through a major change in March of 1993. Ken Westbrook accepted the responsibility of leading the new Church Growth Department. Jim Chavis became Director of Pastoral Ministries on March 1, 1993.

In the division of Pastoral Ministries and Church Growth, this department has been assigned the task of Pastoral Leadership, Pastoral Care, Staff-Relations/Supervision, Deacons, Church/Denominational Secretaries, Multi-Staff, Personal/Professional Development, Summer Youth Ministries, Church Officers/Committees, Religious Education Coordination, Vocational Guidance, Forced Termination, Minister's/Deacon's Wives. Through these tasks, Pastoral Ministries impacts the local church through state events, associational events, and personal consultation. The state events are one, two, or three day events covering critical competencies in leadership with the depth of coverage depending on time. The associational events are skilled workshops such as conflict/change, team building, time/task management, personal/professional development, resource refreshers, and inspirational.

Personal consultation will be with the pastor and staff, the leadership team of the church, and through pulpit supply.

Since our last report, the following event was conducted in the Middle Florida Association on May 18, 1993, "Maintaining Harmonious Relationships" which was taught by Dr. James Fortinberry, and was well attended.

Serving as your Pastoral Ministries Director, if I can assist you or your church in any way please do not hesitate to contact me.

Stewardship

The primary purpose of the Association Stewardship Department is to assist churches and individuals in stewardship development and education. Materials, conferences, methods are provided to meet the needs through stewardship promotion to the churches.

Through Christian stewardship only can the churches fulfill their mission and carry out their ministries. Every church should see the world as Christ sees it. He sees a world that needs to hear the WORD.

So:

This year's stewardship theme is: "GIVE: In Christ's Spirit" (Luke 10:36-37). There Jesus makes it clear that faith leads to eternal life and our faith is expressed in our actions, especially through giving that helps people.

Remember this date: Associational Stewardship Leader Workshop on January 18, 1994, Florida Baptist Theological College, Graceville.

Evangelism

Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now.

This will be and always should be our focus. However, as we begin the count-down toward our 1995 simultaneous revivals, this theme will be at the forefront in our evangelistic efforts.

I believe it is important for us to realize afresh that in our evangelistic efforts we may not always see immediate positive results. This does not in any way suggest evangelistic efforts are not taking place. Let's face it, we live in difficult days. Many churches reporting baptisms are initiating creative ways to reach people. SPECIAL EVANGELISTIC EVENTS is utilized by some churches. This is not something new. Jesus used this approach. A few churches within our association likewise are beginning to go in this direction as well. However, this approach demands the involvement of lay people. Evangelism can no longer be just the pastor's responsibility. We, as churches and church members must work as a unit. God bless those pastors who are out there on the front lines who may not report any baptisms, but yet they remain faithful to their calling.

Pastors, there are numbers of helpful videos in the association office which may be helpful. They are there for you to use. Space will not allow a list in this report. But check out the helpful materials at your disposal in the association office. There is one on Special Evangelistic Events!

Dr. Jerry Passmore, our state evangelism director wants to remind you he and his staff are available for help in your efforts to serve Christ. They await your call.

Some of the upcoming training events include Continuing Witness Seminars and Building Witnessing Relationships among other many helpful programs. You will be getting this information through the mail in greater detail.

I do not have information at the time as to the associational statistics. They will be available, however. God bless your faithful efforts. Special associational events are listed in the associational calendar.

Your associational committee is here to help. Feel free to call on us.

Youth Rally

The Youth Rally experiences a tremendous change in its format this year. In order to provide a more suitable program for all ages, the rallies have split into a Children's Rally on odd months and a Youth Rally on even months. This improvement was made in hopes of increasing rally attendance and church participation. Instead of a pastor advisor, the Youth Rally appointed a committee of officers, a pastor and youth leaders from churches, to plan several Youth Rallies and devise new election procedures.

In the month of December, the rally visited Pine Lake Nursing Home in Greenville, and sang for the residents. Later, in May, the Youth Rally traveled to the Baptist Children's Home in Tallahassee for a cookout and a tour of the home. Including puppet, drama and clown shows by the youth ministry of Monticello First Baptist and inspirational devotions by FCA leader, Steve McHargue, the programs of the Youth Rally were exciting and more accurately targeted to children and youth as well in 1993.

OFFICERS: President - Erika Scott(Greenville); Vice President -Shannon Brown (Faith); Secretary -Gayle Reams (Greenville); Pianist - Tania Stokes (New Home).

COMMITTEE MEMBERS: Gene Stokes (New Home); Cheryl Harris (Mayo); Cindy Abbott (Mt. Olive); Richard Hughes (Elizabeth).

Erika Scott

Director of Missions

This year has brought many opportunities for me. I have visited in all but three of the 29 churches in the Association and in 14 of the 16 churches in the Taylor Association. I spoke at the ordination of three ministers and shared in the ordination service in six churches.

I also shared in the dedication service of the new building at the Central Baptist Church. They have a beautiful building that is well planned and will meet their needs for sometime.

Thank you for allowing me to be a part of the fellowship in this Association and your church. At the end of December 1993, I will give up my responsibility in the Taylor Association but will continue to work in this Association.

Thank the Lord for His blessings and for the opportunity to serve.

Sunday School

This was the fourth year in the BREAKTHROUGH emphasis. The theme this year is BREAKTHROUGH: Serve To Win. In Florida we are using the Scripture theme, "Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matthew 25:40.

Our state enrollment goal for this year is to increase our enrollment by 15,000, an achievable goal. Suggested church goals for the 1993-94 year are:

- Increase in Sunday School Enrollment 9.4%
- Increase in Sunday School Average Attendance 9.4%
- Increase in Sunday School Evangelistic Prospects 9.4%
- Increase in Sunday School Leadership Awards 9.4%

Florida's Sunday School enrollment increased for the thirteenth straight year in 1993 to a total of 571,858 with an average attendance of 254,261. Florida's Sunday Schools are growing. To meet this enrollment increase of 4,159 over the previous year, 81,080 new members were reported. Ethnic Sunday School members of 24,026 are included in this enrollment.

We have a fine ASSISTeam:

- Outreach Darrell Bailey
- Adults Harry Carter
- Youth Don Dalton
- Children Louise Carter
- Preschool Irene Boots
- VBS Roy Saint

Just about all of our ASSISTeam went to Blue Springs or Ridgecrest for training.

There were several conferences planned for our association in '93 such as:

- Small Sunday School Workshop
- Key Leadership Workshop
- Training School
- Call Them In
- Workshop on Soul Winning

Activities planned for '94 are: Small Sunday School Workshop - March 22; Training School - October 24-25.

A big THANKS to our ASSISTeam, also to Rev. Larry Bell for making my job much easier.

Petitionary Letters Committee

The Olive Baptist Church voted in its August 1993 business session to petition our Association for affiliation. This action was forwarded to our Moderator, who appointed a five member Petitionary Letters Committee. The names of this committee appear at the end of this report.

The committee was charged with reviewing reports, documents and other materials submitted and to report back to the Association at the October Annual Meeting.

On September 23 at 10 a.m. the committee met to do its work at First Baptist Madison. After careful study and review of materials, sharing of personal first-hand knowledge of the church and its wishes to fellowship and minister with us, it was a unanimous decision to recommend to you that the Olive Baptist Church be received under the watchcare of the Middle Florida Baptist Association. They will have all the rights and privileges of membership except voting. Should this recommendation be approved by the Association, it will be necessary for the Olive Baptist Church to take another vote on their desire to be affiliated with our Association in nine months (July 1994). Should this vote by the church be affirmative, the Middle Florida Baptist Association would take a final vote on the question of admission at our Annual Meeting one year after the watchcare approval had been granted. Upon a favorable vote the Olive Baptist Church will be granted full fellowship with Middle Florida Baptist Association with all rights and privileges of other member churches.

The committee wishes to express appreciation to the Olive Baptist Church for their desire to be a part of us and for supplying materials needed for study. To Brother Jack Collins, Pastor of Olive, thanks for the quick turn around on all correspondence and your willingness to be of service. Brother Roy Saint, thanks for allowing the committee use of your office.

As chairman, I would like to thank the entire committee for their diligence, contributions and cooperation in accomplishing this important task.

Olive Baptist Church, Boston, Georgia, being welcomed into the Association, October 11, 1993.

Revision to the Bylaws of Middle Florida Baptist Association

At the Semiannual meeting of the association, the committee on committees in its report recommended two bylaw changes. Article VII, Section 2, of the bylaws states that "These bylaws may be amended at any October session by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided, however, that thirty (30) days advance notice, in writing, stating clearly the proposed change and reason for making same be made to all churches."

With that provision in mind, we recommend that the report of the committee on committees serve as the written notice required, and that the association in annual session approve the following changes to the bylaws:

1. That Article IV - "Duties of Officers" be amended by adding the following sentence to Section 5 concerning the duties of the treasurer: "The treasurer shall serve as ex officio member of the Budget Committee, in addition to the five regular members.
2. That Article VI - "Duties of Committees" be amended to substitute the following statement for Section 4, Paragraph 5:

"The Youth Activities Committee shall be composed of three members who shall serve as counsellors and advisors to the officers of the Youth Rally, who shall elect their own officers at their March meeting. This committee shall assist the Youth Rally officers in planning and implementing associational activities designed to promote inspiration, harmony, and cooperation among the youth of the churches."

The present Paragraph 5 reads as follows: "The Youth Activities Committee shall be composed of four members (Pastor-Advisor, President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer) which will be nominated by the Youth Rally at their March meeting and submitted to the associational Nominating Committee for submittal to the Association at its Semiannual Meeting. This committee shall plan and implement associational activities designed to promote inspiration, harmony and cooperation among the youth of the churches."

Music Report 1992-93

In 1992-93, our State Music Leaders, Paul Bobbitt and Charles "Blimp" Davis joined scores of other Florida Baptist spending over 30 days in Dade County with disaster relief efforts following Hurricane Andrew in the fall of 1992.

There was an increase in church music enrollment statewide, but for the first time in some years we dropped in Middle Florida music from 993 to 967. We did reach the goal of every church reporting their music enrollment. Congratulations to our churches! Most of our churches have begun some type of choir also and I want to commend their leaders.

- Jan. 7 Music Leaders Supper (planning for Youth Musical) - Central Baptist organized by Tonya Roberts - 6 present representing 3 churches.
- Feb. 6 Adult Choir Festival at Brewer Lake led by Rick Hurst; 164 participants for 12 churches; total attendance 273.
- Feb. 20 Youth Music & Arts Festival at Fellowship led by Lei Peavy & Erica Scott; 50 participants - 9 churches; total attendance 125.
- Feb. 26-27 Youth Musical Retreat at Blue Springs led by Bro. Bill Floyd and Cheryl Harris; 64 attending, representing 10 churches.
- Mar. 6 Children's Music Fun Day led by Tonya Roberts, Debby Demott, Linda Demott at Elizabeth; 35 participants, 4 churches, total 50.
- June Performances of REVIVAL IN THE LAND by 28 youth representing 8 churches led by Bill Floyd, Cheryl Harris, with Gail Washington directing drama at 5 churches.

- Camps were well attended again with our music council assisting at Pickett Lake with representation at Young Musicians Camp, Harmony Bay Youth Music and Presto Leadership at Blue Springs.
- Aug. 31 Fellowship supper attended by 14 representing 12 churches organized by Clinton Harris and me.
- Sept. 21 Song Leader Training with Bill Davis teaching, led by Larry Townsend at Concord with 14 attending from 9 churches.
