21st. Whereas, this Association has, with regret, heard of the difficulties existing with the Churches, Shandon, Nassau County, and Bethel, Duval County, Fla.,

Resolved, That this Association appoint a committee of Preachers, of two at least, to visit those Churches, with power to use their endeavors to remove the difficulties, and restore them (if possible,) to peace and harmony, and to brotherly love; said committee to consist of Elders Isaac Newton, Daniel Edwards, and William Royal, of Ocala, and report the results of their labors to this body at its next session.

22nd. Called for the Circular, which was presented, read and adopted.

23rd. On motion, Resolved, That this Association appoint an executive committee, to consist of five, that is to say: Brethren Paul B. Colson, G. U. Ellis, J. M. Prevatt, R. P. Lewis and T. J. Prevatt; said committee to have in charge the missionary operations in the bounds of the Alachua Association the ensuing associational year.

24th. Whereas, it is well known to this association, and obvious to every reflecting mind, that there is in the bounds of this association an extensive desititution of the gospel, of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, many dark places where preaching never has been known; in short, the world lies in wickedness before us, and affords an ample field for the use of all his powers. Therefore, Resolved, That this association appoint four missionaries to travel, and preach within the bounds of this association the ensuing year, two of them north, and two south of the Withlacoochee, that is to say: Elders Alex' Tindall and S. T. Stanaland north, and Elders John Tucker and Jeremiah M. Hayman south of the Withlacoochee, and make quarterly reports of their missionary progress to the secretary of the executive committee at Newnan'sville.

SABBATH, NOVEMBER 9th, 1851.

28th. The preaching brethren occupied the stand on the Lord's day in the order of their respective appointments, and preached the gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ with power and energy to a large, attentive and well-ordered congregation. Elder M. N. Strickland intimated the audience from the 22nd chapter of the Revelation of St. John, the Divine, 17th verse: "And the spirit and the bride say come; and let him that heareth say come; and let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely." Elder Isaac Newton immediately followed with a missionary sermon, at the conclusion of which a general collection was taken up for domestic missions. After an intermission of about thirty minutes, Elder Daniel Simmons addressed the congregation on the funeral occasion from the 3rd chapter of Revelations, 8th verse: "I know thy works. Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it, for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name." Father Tucker closed the services with an appropriate exhortation, followed with an invitation to such as felt the need of prayer to present themselves before the stand, and that the mercy of God would be supplicated in their behalf. When the brother was praying God a goodly number came forward, at the close of which, Elders S. Weeks and S. T. Stanaland offered prayer. The ministry labored with commendable zeal, and from the interest manifested by the hearer, the good feeling prevalent throughout the congregation, we feel certain, and have strong reasons to hope that God will, for His Son's sake, add His blessings, through our Redeemer, to the conversion of many of our friends and fellow citizens.

29th. The preaching brethren filled their several appointments Saturday night and Sunday night, with credit to themselves, and we believe evidently to the glory of God.

CIRCULAR.

The Alachua Association, to the Churches of which she is composed, sendeth greeting:

BELOVED BRETHREN AND SISTERS IN THE LORD: Through the abundant goodness of our Heavenly Father, we are once more permitted to address you by way of a Circular, whioh we hope, by the blessing of God, may be the means of edification unto us all. It would be well for us, dear brethren, to remember that we live in a day of great religious light and knowledge; it therefore becomes us to have our hearts filled with thankful near and gratitude to that infinitely wise Being with whom we all have to do, and who holds the destinies of Nations and the Church in the hollow of His hand; that he has been pleased to visit our land in pleasant plough, and to confer upon us gifts and blessings that are not enjoyed by man in the largest portion of this creature, that while many of the nations of the earth stand enveloped in thick darkness, and under the influence of impious systems of religion and despotic systems of civil Government, He has been pleased to bless and favor in a peculiar manner the people of this happy land, to see into the simplicity of the religion of Jesus, and has been pleased to call many from under the influence of evil, and from darkness to everlasting light, even to the light of the ever-blessing and immovable spirit; in his own time; thereby enabling many of us to hope to testify in our own experience the truth of the doctrine of St. Paul, in his epistle to the Romans, chap. 8th, verses 1st and 2nd, wherein he hath said: "There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Therefore, dear brethren and sisters, inasmuch as God has declared by the mouth of his holy Apostle that to be naturally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace; does it not become us more and more to believe in the spirit; to be drawn more and more under the influence of it, "to walk in it that we may abound more," that we may, according, on in obedience to the exhortation of the blessed Saviour, become the children of the light and the day, remembering also, the doctrine of the Apostle when he said: "As many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God, and joint heirs with Christ." Therefore, brethren, seeing that it has pleased God in his wisdom and goodness to bless us in a peculiar manner, both spiritually and religiously, does it not become us to feel the responsibility of the position which we occupy in regard to ourselves, to posterity, to the cause of virtue and our country. Doubt not however, as rational and intelligent beings created in the image and likeness of God, to feel that the important duty devolves upon us to maintain the testimonies of our God, and to exalt higher and higher the standard of unblameable truth; that the light of it may shine brighter and brighter, and its influence be felt by all the inhabitants of the earth, on the happy day of epoch spoken of by one of the Lord's prophets, namely, the harbinger; when the sword shall be turned into the ploughshare, and the spear into the pruning hook, and nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they have war any more. Therefore, brethren and sisters, seeing that God has been pleased wonderfully to bless us with the light of His spirit, with Books and publications of all kinds, and with preachers of the Word, it certainly becomes us to be diligent and vigilante, to improve upon all by these means, bearing in mind the exhortation of the Apostle when he said: "Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity." It is obviously our duty to endeavor as much in us lies to improve both temporally and spiritually; for it cannot be imagined that the human race has arrived at the state of perfection to which they are called, for eyes hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive the things which God has in store for those that love him. It is abundantly evident there is no want of improvement amongst who are professors, and it is also evident as there are much the larger portion of the human family who have not heard the glad tidings of the gospel, it is our duty to stand addressed in among them by all the means that lie in our power; likewise to always be faithful in the performance of every duty, faithful in prayer and service, the Word being our fountain, faithful in the ministering causes, together to remember faithfully temporal things, fervent in business fearing the Lord, and always living virtuous integrity and love; remembering the testimony of them who died before us when honored. "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, that we love one another, pray for one another, and abide in the Word, faithful even to the last, high in the estimation of the world; over the word of faith which we preach, and in the Apostle. Finally, brethren, live in peace, and the God of peace be with you forever—

J. J. PREVAILT, Clerk.

JOHN TUCKER, Moderator.

CONSTITUTION AND DECORUM OF THE
ALACHUA BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, FLA.

We, the Churches of Jesus Christ, who have been regularly baptized upon a profession of our faith, being convinced, from a series of experience, of the necessity of a combination of Churches, and of obtaining a correspondence, for the preserving of a federal union among all the Churches of the same faith and order:

1. We believe, first, in one only true and living God, and that there is a trinity of persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and yet there are not three Gods, but one God.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the fall of Adam, and the imputation of his sin to his posterity, in the corruption of human nature, and the impotency of men to recover himself by his own free-willability.

4. We believe in the doctrine of Election.

5. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God, only by the righteousness of Christ imputed to them.

6. We believe that all those who were chosen in Christ will have been effectually called, regenerated, converted, sanctified and supported by the Spirit and power of God, so that they shall persevere in grace, and not one of them be finally lost.

7. We believe that good works are the fruits of faith, and follow after justification, and that they only justify us in the sight of men and angels, and are evidences of our gracious state.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment; and the happiness of the righteous, and the punishment of the wicked, will be eternal.

And as for gospel order:

1. We believe that the visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful persons who have quitted Christian fellowship with each other, and have given themselves up to the Lord and to one another and have agreed to keep up a Godly discipline, agreeable to the rules of the Gospel.

2. We believe that Jesus Christ is the Great Head of his Church and only Lawgiver, and that the government is with the Body, and is the privilege of each individual, and that the discipline of the Church is intended for the reclaiming of those Christians who may be disorderly, either in principle or practice, and must be faithfully kept up, for God's glory, and the peace and unity of the Churches.

3. We believe that Water Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, are Ordinances of the Lord, and are to be continued till his second coming.

4. We believe that true believers in Jesus Christ are the only subjects of Baptism; and that immersion is the only mode.

5. We believe that none but regularly baptized Church members have a right to communion at the Lord's table.

6. We believe that it is the duty of every heaven-born soul to become a member of the visible Church, to make a public profession of his faith, to be legally baptized, so as to have a right to, and partake of the Lord's Supper, at every legal opportunity through the whole course of his life.

7. We believe that no minister has a right to the administration of the ordinance of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, only such as regularly called, and come under the imposition of the hands of the Presbytery.

Having laid down a summary of the faith and order upon which we intend to actuate, we therefore propose to mention, for the Decorum of Association, the following plan or form of government:

ARTICLE I. Those members who are regularly chosen by the Churches in our Union shall compose the Association.

2. The members so chosen shall produce letters from their respective Churches, certifying their appointments, together with their number in fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, restored, dismissed, excommunicated, and dead, since our first Association.

3. The ministers thus chosen and convened, shall be denominated the Alachua Baptist Association.

This Association shall have no power to hold it over God's heritage, nor by which they can infringe upon any of the internal rights of the Churches.

4. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk, who shall be chosen by the churches present.

6. If new Church or Society to be admitted into this Union; they shall petition by letters and messengers, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and it shall be manifested by the Moderator giving the messengers the right hand of fellowship.

7. No church in this Union shall have a right to more than two messengers, till she shall exceed one hundred members, and then she shall have a right to an additional messenger, for every fifty after the first hundred.

8. Every query sent to the Association by any church in this Union, shall be read and put to vote by the Moderator, whether it shall be debated; and if there be a majority for, it shall be taken up and investigated; but if not, it shall be withdrawn. Provided always, that those be first considered which affect the union of the churches.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the observation of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. Every member who speaks in debate, shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator, and shall not be interrupted while speaking, except he depart from the subject.

11. No person shall speak more than three times to the same query, without leave of the Association.

12. There shall be no talking or whispering in the time of public speech, nor reflections cast upon the speaker.

13. No member shall absent himself from the Association, without leave of the Moderator.

14. If any member shall break the rules of this Decorum, he shall be immediately reprimanded by the Moderator.

15. It is the business of this Association, first, to provide for the general union of the churches; second, to keep up a correspondence with those Associations of the same faith and order, that a chain of communication may be preserved amongst the churches; thirdly, to give the churches the best advice they can in matters of difficulty; and, if the communion shall be broken between any of the sister churches in the Union, to enquire into the cause of the breach, and use their best endeavors to remove the difficulty; but if the breach cannot be healed, to withdraw from any church or churches whom they look upon to be unsound in principle, or immoral in practice, till they be reclaimed; fourthly, to admit any of the brethren in the ministry as assistants, if they shall judge it to be necessary; fifthly, to appoint a Secretary, to keep a book, and regularly to record the proceedings of every Association, and to see that he is satisfied for his trouble; sixthly, to have Minutes of the Association, read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk, before the Association rises, and have them printed, if they think proper; seventhly, to amend this form or plan of government at any time when the majority of the union shall deem it to be necessary; eighthly, to adjourn to any time or place they may think to be most proper.
