Report on Sunday School.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools make the following report. That we believe in Sunday schools, and do not think it needs any argument to prove their importance. Every church should try and have a good Sunday School, and every member of the church should give their hearty support to the work. We notice a want of interest in this part of the work, especially is this true on the part of older members of the church. It is the opinion of your committee that every member of the church should join the Sunday School, and thus encourage the children by their attendance. We would recommend to our Sunday Schools the literature of the Southern Baptist Convention, and take the American Baptist Publication Society. We also recommend the reading of our own denominational State paper, "The Homefield," "The Foreign Mission Journal," and last but not least, the reading of the Bible. We would urge our pastors to try and give the Sunday School work more of their attention. We would suggest propriety of organizing a Sunday School Convention to take the place of fifth Sunday meeting.

* Signed, J. C. ROGERS,
LEE STOKES,
E. S. CARUTHERS.

Report discussed by J. C. Rogers, L. W. Simmons and W. H. Zellner.
Report adopted.

Report on Education.

Knowledge is power. Education is trained knowledge. In the hand of a Christian education is an instrument of great power, but a perverted tool of great injury to a wicked person; it only makes him a four-fold child of the evil one. God gives us the talent and He expects each one of us to develop it. Train our children in the way they should go is the divine injunction. We recommend our school at DeLand, the Stetson University, to the patronage of our people. To our young preachers especially we would say, go to the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville at least two years and take a pastor's course; there are some things taught therein every Baptist preacher should know.

Report on Temperance.

So much has been said and written on the subject of temperance until it is difficult to discuss the subject without going over old trodden paths. But we feel that the truth cannot be too often repeated. That of all the hindrances to God's cause none is more deplorable than the evil of strong drink. But your Committee is pleased to note that this evil is on the decrease, and we can assure the advocates of temperance that their efforts have the sanction of their heavenly Father. We would therefore recommend that each church see to it, that the habit of intemperance be appeased among its own members, by maintaining good and wholesome discipline. We are pleased to note that the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union" is doing a grand work throughout the nation, on this subject, therefore let us take courage and go forward, and always vote as we pray, remembering that we cannot expect to wipe the curse from the earth until we have godly men to administer the civil interest of our country, both general and local.

Respectfully submitted,

L. W. SIMMONS,
J. M. WARD,
W. H. SWEARENGEN,
Committee.

Discussed by L. W. Simmons, J. M. Deveneau, M. E. Weeks and E. M. C. Dunklin.
Report adopted.

Report on Baptist Ministers' Assurance Association.

This is a branch of our Association and Conventional work, that proposes to aid the families of our deceased ministers, who have as a general thing but very little to go upon. In this dark hour we should show the true religion to visit the fatherless and widow in their affliction. Over four thousand dollars has been collected and distributed in this way since the organization twelve years ago. About six hundred and fifty dollars this year, thus far, has been raised. Let all who can lend a helping hand to this work.

Submitted,

E. M. C. DUNKLIN,
J. W. WARD,
MRS. J. M. DEVENEAU,
Committee.

Discussed by L. W. Simmons, M. E. Weeks.
Report adopted.

Bro. L. D. Geiger reported and received as Corresponding Secretary of State Board of Missions.

The hour for preaching having arrived J. M. Deveneau preached from Job xxii:21.

Preaching Committee reported Bro. L. W. Simmons to preach tonight at 7:15; L. D. Geiger tomorrow at 11 a. m., W. R. O'Berry at 7 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

Association called to order by the Moderator, prayer by J. M. Deveneau.

Report on Nominations.

Your Committee on Nominations recommend that the next Session of the Association be held with the Baptist church at Webster, on Thursday before the fourth Sunday in October, 1903, at 11, a. m. E. M. C. Dunklin to preach the introductory sermon, Geo. T. Leitner, alternate.

Respectfully submitted,
W. P. EBBS,
T. ROEBUCK,
W. H. Hurst,
Committee.

Report on Missions.

Your Committee on Missions would report that we heartily endorse the sentiment of former committees as expressed in Minutes of our previous Association. Certainly it can be no longer a doubted question that the glorious Gospel of God has for its essence the missionary element, the missionary spirit. Our blessed Lord and Master preached and practiced this fundamental doctrine Himself, being the first great exponent. There seems to be a sentiment among a number of those who profess the Baptist faith, to the effect that we lay too much stress upon this one distinguishing feature peculiar to our denomination, more particular does this seem true with reference to "Foreign Missions." The fact that our Savior was the first and greatest foreign missionary, and in this capacity best illustrated and demonstrated the universal saving power of the everlasting gospel. We recommend a careful and prayerful reading of the great commission and reading of our various Missionary Journals and the Bible, which not only clearly and plainly teaches missionary doctrine, but also most unmistakably requires of those who claim Jesus as their Savior, a faithful and willing support thereof.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. DEVENEAU, Chairman.

Report discussed by L. D. Geiger.

Report adopted.

Moved that tomorrow at 10 a. m., be made the special order for a missionary mass meeting.

Committee on Periodicals.

Your Committee would recommend the following for information, "The Florida Baptist Witness," for it is the only source through which we can acquaint ourselves with our work in the State. We also endorse the literature of the Southern Baptist Convention, and also recommend the American Baptist Publication as publishing sound and wholesome literature.

W. H. WEST,
M. E. WEEKS.

Report on Obituaries.

We your Committee find from the letters that nine deaths have occurred during the year, six females and four males. We realize that among these departed members we have lost some of our most faithful workers, in the Lord's vineyard, yet not lost, gone before. "Blessed are they who die in the Lord."

O. S. BOGUE,
W. R. MATHEWS.

OUR DEAD.

"Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep."

Bro. J. B. Weeb, of Oxford.
Bro. M. J. Perry, of Oxford.
Bro. J. J. Medkief, of Sardis.
Bro. Lee Graham, of Sumterville.
Sister Emma Nichols, of Oxford.
Sister Clore, of Lady Lake.
Sister Elizabeth Lanier, Leesburg.
Sister Elizabeth Bishop, of Bay Hill.
Sister E. A. Fowler, Webster.
Sister Fannie Robertson, Webster.

"Rest sweet spirits, day is done,
Rest eternal thou hast won,
Angels around thee guard shall keep
While beloved thou dost sleep;
Sleep, thy sorrows all are o'er;
Sleep, on earth to wake no more."

Report on Letters and Queries.

Your Committee find that the work of the churches is in good condition. Most of the churches report an increase of membership, all churches of the Association report good Sunday Schools. We find no queries in the letters.

Respectfully submitted,
R. D. MATHEWS,
O. S. BOGUE.

Committee on Woman's Work.

One eminent writer, after making careful survey of the world, makes this observation. This is woman's age, not that our predecessors have not been useful in ages past, but now more than ever before are doors open to us which causes us to feel thoughtful and interested for the souls of the million of unfortunate sisters which can only be reached by women. We feel our responsibility and influence is widening, and deepening rapidly. And when we rise from the plane of duty, to the higher elevation of love, for God and His work, and pray for increased spirituality, we can attempt great things for God and especially great things from Him. We notice with regret that but few of the churches have societies, yet all have their faithful few workers, who like Dorcas of old, never grow weary in well doing. Knowledge is power, and we would heartily ask our sisters to lend their influence in having the Witness and Missionary Journals in their homes, especially the missionary edition of the Witness.

We have held several meetings in connection with the union meetings which we hope have given an increased interest in woman's work. Brethren, we ask your prayers and sympathy and co-operation with those women who are struggling to maintain and interest woman's work. Societies, children band and hope that the coming year will find us more energetic in doing His will.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. L. W. SIMMONS,
MRS. J. O. ABBOT,
MRS. MARY P. NELSON,
MRS. J. B. TOWNS,
MRS. H. BEVILLE.
