Report on Spiritual Condition of Churches.

We are glad to report that we find an increase of 103, as compared with an increase of 48 last year. But we should not be satisfied even with this increase when there are so many perishing souls about us.

We are alarmed to find some of our churches without prayer meetings and Sunday Schools. This should not be the case. How can we extend the work unless the Word of God is taught? We prayerfully recommend that each church look well to having a Sunday School and prayer meeting.

SUSIE R. JACKSON,
LIZZIE JOHNSON,
L. H. BENNETT,
Committee.

Report on Woman's Work.

In all the departments of the Christian's work as a missionary, woman is second to none, and as a teacher and leader man cannot excel her, with her tender, loving and sympathetic heart, so Christ-like.

When we consider the great good that is being done through and by woman's work, should men not do all they can do to encourage us in this much-needed work, which they cannot do? Let the brethren ever hold us up and encourage us in discharging our duty to Christ.

Our reports show this year that we have raised $223.33 for missionary purposes.

We recommend that each church co-operate with the vice presidents, Sisters Rosa E. Merryman and Susie Jackson, in organizing missionary societies and Sunbeam Bands in the churches.

MRS. ROSA E. MERRYMAN,
Chairman.

Report discussed by A. J. York, Mrs. Rosa E. Merryman and Miss Mary A. Taylor, and adopted.

Report on Publications.

There are a great many publications which are poisonous to the mind and hurtful to the cause of Christ. We should be very careful as to what our children read and study, and, as Baptists, we should use Baptist literature. We recommend the American Baptist Publication Society and Southern Baptist Convention periodicals for our Sunday Schools. We believe them sound in doctrine. We urge that they have a liberal patronage; also our home paper, published at Ocala, the Florida Baptist Witness; and Our Home Field and Foreign Mission Journal, to educate our people in the great work of home and foreign missions. Last, but not least, the Holy Bible, the Book of books, should be our daily study and companion.

A. J. YORK,
H. C. PARKER,
SOUTHERN WARD,
Committee.

Discussed by A. J. York, J. C. Porter, H. C. Parker and F. J. Fowler, and adopted.

Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. J. C. Porter from John 6:9. Collection for foreign missions amounted to $12.16. Associational missions was called for, amounting to $13. Association adjourned until 2 p. m.

Prayer by A. J. York.

Afternoon Session.

Association called to order by Moderator. Prayer by H. C. Parker. Song, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

Report on B. M. A. A.

We, as co-laborers in Christ, do heartily recommend and advise all ministers and members of our churches to become members with us in this great work. It gladdens our hearts to learn of the comfort and relief our Association so often carries to the homes of our bereaved sisters and their little ones at the death of God's ministers. It is so good to be able to help those in distress.

It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove three of our number this past year. We bow with humble submission to the divine will.

A. J. YORK,
N. T. KING,
GEORGE DESHA,
Committee.

Report discussed by A. J. York and J. C. Porter and adopted.

Report on Missions.

"Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. He that believeth not shall be damned." We find from the church letters that there has been a marked increase in contributions and interest in missions during the year, as compared to last year. We recommend that a committee of three in each church be appointed to co-operate with the Vice President of the State Board, F. J. Fowler, for Santa Fe River Association, in awaking a general interest in mission work in our bounds. We recommend that this committee solicit subscribers for the literature of the denomination—Foreign Mission Journal, Home Field and Baptist Witness. We also ask that the brethren co-operate more heartily with the Woman's Missionary Union.

F. J. FOWLER,
MRS. ROSA E. MERRYMAN,
T. R. WAITS,
Committee.

Report discussed by F. J. Fowler, A. J. York and Mrs. Rosa E. Merryman and adopted.

Committee on Preaching reported Rev. N. T. King to preach at 7 p. m.

Report on Education.

Education advances the spiritual and moral interests of man. We would first call attention to the spiritual training, as we consider that paramount. This spiritual training should begin with the mothers and naturally does with all Christian mothers.

We are glad to note such glowing accounts from our churches in regard to our Sunday Schools.

We would recommend that the Sunday Schools use black-board work in teaching the Bible.

It is gratifying to note the interest which our public school system, with its noble body of officers and teachers, manifests in the uplifting of good morals, which are so necessary to complete womanhood and manhood.

We most heartily recommend our own school, John B. Stetson University, as the place for completing an education.

We also ask that the Association look well to the education of young ministers.

T. H. RICHARDSON,
C. W. STALLS,
J. VANLANDINGHAM,
Committee.

Report on Temperance.

In speaking of temperance, which is so closely interwoven with every interest of life, we ask that we put forth our best effort to suppress the use of alcoholic drinks as a beverage on the part of our church members. Its destructive power is not realized as it should be by the followers of our blessed Savior. The liquor traffic costs the United States of America one billion dollars annually and one hundred thousand victims to fill drunkards' graves. There are two and a half million drunkards in the United States and one million orphans and widows; fifty thousand churches and two hundred thousand saloons. Seventy-five per cent. of all crimes is traceable to strong drink. This red-eyed monster, king of evil, dethrones reason and degrades man to the level of the brute.

We are sorry to say that we have so many church members who visit barrooms and we hear of so many blind tigers and country stills that we believe this dreadful practice and crime is still on the increase in our country.

Dearly beloved brethren, there is a remedy for this that never fails—Jesus, the Son of God. Let us commit ourselves to Him and ask Him prayerfully, in the spirit, to guide us from all evil and deathly poison will be no trouble to us.

H. C. PARKER,
WILLIE PERRY,
MRS. MATTIE STEVENS,
Committee.

Report discussed by H. C. Parker, F. J. Fowler, J. C. Porter, B. Dial, A. J. York and H. A. Fisher, and adopted.

The following resolution was passed by the Association:

Resolved, That we, the Santa Fe River Association, protest against the manufacture and sale of domestic wines and pot stills. And that we ask our representatives to pass a bill in the next Legislature prohibiting the same.

Report on Letters and Queries.

We find no queries in the letters to the Association. We suggest that the clerk of each church record the pastor who served during the Associational year and the pastor who may be called to serve another year, with post office address of each. We also recommend that churches having B. Y. P. U. organizations make reports of work in their church letters.

T. H. RICHARDSON,
ADA SMAILES,
D. THOMAS,
Committee.

Report adopted.

F. J. FOWLER, Missionary.

Report on Sunday Schools.

We, your Committee on Sunday Schools, are glad to report that the Sunday School cause is gradually growing in interest in the bounds of our Association. And we feel that this great work is doing good and we hope that in the near future every church will have a live Sunday School in its midst. We are also glad to note that, in our own knowledge, wherever a Sunday School is carried on, they have prayer meetings and are more up to date in their Christian work and devotion to God. We heartily recommend that every Christian attend and support Sunday Schools and thereby grow in grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted.

H. C. PARKER,
ROBERT McCLELLAN,
GEORGE DESHA,
Committee.

Report discussed by T. H. Richardson, H. C. Parker, George Vanlandingham, F. J. Fowler and H. A. Fisher. Adopted.
