In the absence of the Rev. F. J. Fowler, the appointee for the introduction sermon, Rev. J. B. Holley, of Gainesville, Fla., was elected, and preached from Rev. 1:18, after which service the session adjourned for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Messengers were called together by Moderator promptly at 1 o'clock p. m. After singing "To the Work," and prayers by Rev. H. C. Martin, the Moderator stated that in the absence of F. J. THURSDAY MORNING SESSION.

Oct. 23, 1902.

After devotion exercises, conducted by the Moderator and Rev. L. D. Geiger, the minutes of previous day were read and approved. The call for letters was resumed, to which Rochelle responded. Rev. L. D. Geiger, Corresponding Secretary of the State Board of Missions, was recognized and invited to a seat among us.

REPORT OF MINISTERS' ASSURANCE ASSOCIATION.

The Baptist Relief Association is now an established fact. It has been a blessing to a great many families of deceased ministers. Its help has come when most needed, when the husband and father, the guide and protector, was taken away, and financial distress was added to bereavement.

We commend it to ministers as an easy way to insure their lives, and to churches as a gracious way of practicing pure and undefiled religion.

B. R. MOSELEY,
N. T. KING.

After discussion of the report by B. R. Moseley it was adopted.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Intemperance is one of the great evils of our land, and discussion seems not to lessen it. The dispensary or local option laws have been suggested as a solution of this great evil, and still it goes on from year to year, destroying its millions and bringing sorrow to many homes and hearts.

So long as professed Christians continue to indulge their appetites, just so long will the world stand off and make light of our pretensions. It is the duty of our Christian people to stand together in our efforts to overcome this great evil. "Touch not, taste not, handle not that which is unclean" should be the motto of every professed follower of our blessed Master.

N. T. KING,
M. R. WEEKS.

The above report having been heartily discussed by N. T. King, B. R. Moseley, A. R. Scruggs, L. D. Geiger and J. B. Holley, was adopted.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

We find that there is a great need for Christian education. While the world is making rapid strides in literary attainments, the matter of Christian education is being neglected by the masses. It is said true education consists in the "development of the head, the heart and the hand;" the neglect of either of those impairs the usefulness of man. We are glad to state that in our Stetson University, at DeLand, Fla., these characteristics are made prominent.

To those who are seeking higher education we would recommend Stetson University, and to the ministry, our Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

G. W. RILES,
J. H. RAWLINS.

Discussed by G. W. Riles, B. R. Moseley, J. B. Holley, L. D. Geiger and S. E. Timmons, after which it was adopted.

Bros. S. E. Timmons, Moderator of St. John's Association, and J. P. Wall, of St. John's Association, were recognized and invited to seats.

The hour having arrived for preaching, Rev. L. D. Geiger occupied the pulpit and preached from Luke, 16:5, after which a collection amounting to $21.98 was taken for Association purposes.

REPORT ON MISSIONS.

We are glad to note that the Association has been able to keep a Missionary in the field since last January, and rejoice to find that the ex-Committee has been so fortunate in the one employed. Bro. Riles has worked hard and faithfully, and God has abundantly blessed his efforts.

We note from his report, 1,708 miles traveled, 142 sermons, and 30 baptisms, besides 17 received by letter.

This is about one convert to every four sermons, and fifty miles traveled. It is much better than most of the pastors have made.

We, therefore, recommend that he be continued as Missionary in the bounds of this Association. But, brethren, we are not to remain in Jerusalem, neither in Samaria, but we must extend our work to the ultimate parts of the earth.

We must go with Dr. McConnell into the home field and search out the destitute sections of our Southland, and there pour out the light of the Gospel truth. Or, into the lanes, byways and slums of our cities, and there pluck fallen humanity as a "brand from the burning."

We must go with Dr. Willingham down here to our sister republic, Mexico, and help Walkins, Cleavens, Bartow and others fight Catholicism. We must go to Brazil to help Bagby against priest-craft. We must go to the "Flowery Land" and help Graves, Simmons, Bryant, Hartwell, Owens and others to drag the perishing millions of China from the temples of idolatry, or the iron grasp of Confucianism. Yes, obey the Master in preaching the Gospel to the whole world.

No Baptist should be satisfied with less than giving the "good news" to every creature. (Signed)

H. C. MARTIN,

A. R. SCRUGGS.

Having been discussed by H. C. Martin and L. D. Geiger, it was adopted.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION.

Promptly at 9 a. m. this Association was called to order by the Moderator, and after devotional exercises, conducted by Revs. H. C. Martin and G. W. Riles, the minutes of the former days were read and adopted.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools reports as follows:

We notice that there were thirteen schools reported at the last meeting of this Association, with an enrollment of 522 pupils, making an average of over 40 to the school, and every church reported a school, save one, Orange Creek.

Only nine Churches have reported Sunday Schools this session, with an enrollment of 135.

Taking the numbers reported last year, of those reported this year we have an aggregate of 669 pupils, an increase over last year of 117.

We regard the Sunday Schools among the greatest of our Christian work.

First, because it deals directly with the principal source of our nation's increase. From the families we gather the material out of which our nation's constituency is to be built. To children we must look for the future men and women of our country. "Cleanse the fountain and you purify the whole stream." Prepare the hearts of the children and they readily receive the words of eternal life.

Second, because in it may be found a field of labor suited to the capacity of every Christian, either great or small. Christ said to the disciples indiscriminately, "Go preach the Gospel to every creature," and right at our doors the young people many of them are growing to be men and women without religious or moral culture. We must enter the field and go to work. We must be willing to spend and be spent.

Third, we deem it one of the greatest, because the impressions made in childhood are the most lasting. Our religious views are formed in childhood, and if we do not enter this inviting field and plant it with the Gospel truths as we understand them, others will, to our exclusion.

We recommend that there be a Sunday School Missionary appointed, to give all or a part of his time to the Sunday School work in the bounds of the Association. As many of our teachers need better preparation, we recommend weekly teachers' meetings, wherever it is practicable, to study the lesson and learn by all the lesson helps at command how to teach the lesson.

H. C. MARTIN,
Z. M. SAUNDERS.

Discussed by H. C. Martin, J. B. Holley and N. T. King, and was adopted.

REPORT ON WOMAN'S WORK.

We, your Committee, have carefully considered the subject given us, and find that woman's work has become an important factor in the enterprising churches of the present time. That its importance has long been considered is shown in Paul's letter to the Romans, in which he mentions the names of several women as his helpers. He also writes: "I commend unto you Phebe, our sister, who is a servant of the Church at Cenehrea, that ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatever business she hath need of you."

Woman's work in our churches is not considered a separate work, but as auxiliary or helper in the work of the church. As such, should it be discouraged and crowded out of our associational work, or should it have the help and co-operation recommended by Paul?

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. E. JOHNSON,
MRS. C. A. WILLIAMS,
MRS. R. E. MERRYMAN.

Discussed by Mrs. R. E. Merryman and W. C. Foster, and adopted.

REPORT ON LETTERS AND QUERIES.

Your Committee on Letters and Queries do not find anything for discussion. From the reports, all the churches seem to be in a flourishing condition.

C. W. STALLS,
WILLIE PERRY,
NELLIE PRICE.

Adopted without discussion.

REPORT ON PUBLICATIONS.

Information must precede all interest in any subject. This is no less true of religious things than of other things. Ignorance is the greatest enemy with which we have to contend in doing the Lord's work. Many Baptists are not cooperating in the organized work of our convention, because they are not informed concerning it. The Florida Baptist Witness, The Home Field and The Foreign Mission Journal contain full information in regard to the work of the several Mission Boards, State, home and foreign, and your committee earnestly recommends all of these publications to all of our people. The Witness is now publishing a monthly edition, devoted especially to missions, for the small price of 50 cents per year, and which we especially recommend to any of our brethren who honestly want a cheaper paper than the Weekly Witness.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. HOLLEY.

Discussed by L. D. Geiger and adopted.

REPORT ON BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION.

The report on the Baptist Young People's Union was read and adopted.

The B. Y. P. U. is one of the infant organizations of our great denomination. Its object is to enlist the co-operation of all our young people into the actual working of the churches. Where this work has been inaugurated it has proven a great blessing to the working forces of our churches. In this State we have about fifty Unions. Your Committee would recommend that wherever practical the church organize a Union and seek to develop its young people.

J. B. HOLLEY,
MRS. J. H. RAWLINS,
LEONA FOWLER.

REPORT ON SPIRITUAL CONDITION OF THE CHURCHES.

From the reading of the letters and the various reports from the churches, we are glad to report the spiritual condition of the churches as flourishing. In most of our churches revival services have been held, the results of which give us a net increase of 133 members.

L. H. BENNETT,
T. R. PARKER.

Report adopted.

REPORT ON DECEASED MINISTERS AND DEACONS.

We are rejoiced to find that not one of our ministers has been called from his earthly labors to his heavenly reward.

Our hearts are saddened, however, from the fact that one of our deacons, Bro. George Cale, has been called from us. In memory of him we suggest that a blank page in our minutes be inscribed.

F. F. JERKINS.

G. W. GILES.

Report adopted.

TO THE MEMORY
OF DEACON GEORGE COLE.

REPORT ON NOMINATIONS.

We nominated Orange Creek Church as the place for next meeting, and R. W. Jones to preach introductory sermon, with A. J. York alternate.

B. R. MOSELEY,
R. E. JOHNSON.

Report adopted.

RESOLUTIONS CARRIED.

1. That any brother of this Association attending any other Association be requested to act as correspondent.
2. That the Clerk have the usual number of minutes published, and that he be allowed fifteen dollars for his services, and that the Treasurer pay for the same.
3. That the sacred thanks of this Association are extended to the Ochwilla Church and vicinity for the royal and hospitable manner with which they have entertained this body during its present session.
4. That the matter of employing a Missionary be left entirely with the Executive Committee.

The election of an Executive Committee for the ensuing year having been called, upon motion the Clerk was instructed to cast the vote of the Association for R. B. Weeks, A. R. Scruggs, L. H. Bennett, L. Price and H. C. Parker, ex-Committee.

There being no further business before the Association, after singing the hymn, "Blessed be the Tie That Binds," and prayer by J. B. Holley, the Association adjourned to meet with Orange Creek Baptist Church, Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in October, 1903.

R. B. WEEKS, Moderator.

J. B. HOLLEY, Clerk.

CARRIE JERNIGAN,
Sec. Pro Tem.
