REPORT ON MISSIONS.

Your committee beg leave to make the following report. If it were necessary, we feel that our time is too limited to do justice to this great and important subject. We do not feel, however, that the many excellent reports that have been written upon this subject have been in vain, for the Lord is truly letting us behold the good even in our day.

When we take into consideration the Divine injunction: "Go, and I am with you alway," "Give and it shall be given unto you," we need not be discouraged, we need not falter, but labor on more earnestly, zealously, looking unto Jesus, for "the word of God is not bound."

Nevertheless, dear brethren and sisters, while we see a few mites falling into the Lord's treasury, let each one of us honestly and devoutly ask himself, Have I, have I put in my mite; have I done my duty?

The cry is still pressing, "Come over and help us," and will we not resolve, by the help of the Lord, that our efforts shall not be lessened, that we will yet consecrate and sacrifice for the souls of men.

That we will, at least once a month, teach our people to give, if ever so little, and practice what we preach.

W. M. FARRIOR, Chairman.

JOHN STUART.

REPORT OF MISSIONARY.

I began work as your missionary on January 17th; since then have traveled 4,693 miles in Jackson, Franklin and Calhoun counties. I have preached 81 sermons, visited 204 families, baptized 15, and received by letter 8. Have revived the work in Apalachicola, and have cash on hand $46, and subscribed $250 with which to rebuild our church there.

On June 6 Bro. R. C. B. Lawrence and myself organized a church at Poplar Head, Calhoun county, and on Sunday ordained a Deacon.

I find, after nearly a year's work, that in my judgment the church at Poplar Head and Chipola Lake are self-sustaining. The church in Apalachicola will have to be helped for one more year; then I think it will be able to care for itself.

RUFUS D. BARROWS, Missionary.

Report on deceased ministers was read and adopted, to-wit:

REPORT ON DECEASED MINISTERS.

Your committee on deceased ministers beg leave to report that from the reading of the church letters they are glad to find that death has taken from us no minister of this Association during the past year. We feel thankful to the Lord for His preserving care; and it brings to our mind the injunction of the Saviour, "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he may send forth more laborers into the vineyard, for the harvest is plenteous, but the laborers are few." We have some ministers who are growing old and infirm, and may soon enter into their rest:

D. A. SKIPPER, Chairman.

Report on temperance was read and adopted, to-wit:

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

We, the Committee on Temperance, beg leave to make the following report: We feel that intemperance is a great evil, and we are sorry to have to say that it is too common in our churches. We believe that we should be temperate in all things, and we ask that prayer and supplication be made continually for the gift of the spirit of God to enable us to overcome this monster evil.

May the God of love enable us to do this, is the prayer of your committee.
W. D. SIMPSON, Chairman.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools beg leave to report:

We find that four of our churches have Sunday schools, viz: Friendship, Damascus, Poplar Springs and Sardis, and they feel that the churches have been greatly benefitted by this means.

Brethren, we hope all the other churches will organize Sunday schools, and, like the churches mentioned in our report, enjoy the high privilege of teaching the Word to our children and friends.

RUFUS D. BARROWS, Chairman.

REPORT ON PUBLICATIONS.

It is with great pleasure that we recommend to our brethren of the churches of this Association that they subscribe, pay for and read the Florida Baptist Witness. We rejoice that the proprietors have succeeded in giving us such an organ of Baptist faith and principles. We would, therefore, beg the brethren, and especially our ministers, to give it our cordial support.

We would also recommend for our Sunday schools "Kind Words Lesson Papers," and the "Lesson Papers" of the American Baptist Publication Society.

R. C. B. LAWRENCE, Chairman.

FRIDAY MORNING, 9 A. M.

The Moderator being absent, upon motion D. A. Skipper occupied the chair.

Religious exercises were conducted by the Moderator pro tem.

DECORUM.

ARTICLE 1. Those members who are regularly chosen by the churches in our union shall compose the Association.

2. The members so chosen shall produce letters from their respective churches certifying their appointment, together with their number in fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, restored, dismissed, excommunicated and dead, since the last Association; also, a statement of the amount of funds sent up by the delegates, and for what purpose, and any other contribution made during the year.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall be denominated the WEST FLORIDA BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

4. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk, who shall be chosen by the members present.

5. This Association shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor by which she can infringe upon any of the internal rights of the churches.

6. If newly constituted churches, or others, desire to be admitted into this union, they shall petition by letter and delegates; and if found, upon examination, to be orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and such reception shall be manifested by the Moderator giving to the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Each church in this Association shall be entitled to two delegates, and when her number of members shall reach twenty-five she shall be entitled to three, and for every additional increase of twenty-five members she shall be entitled to an additional delegate.

8. Every query sent to the Association by any of the churches in this union shall be read and put to a vote by the Moderator whether it shall be discussed, and if there be a majority for discussion, it shall be taken up and considered, if not, it shall be withdrawn; provided, always, those be first considered which affect the union of the Church.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the observation of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it. The last motion shall be first in order.

10. Every person who speaks in debate shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator, and shall not be interrupted while speaking, except he depart from the subject.

11. No person shall speak more than three times on the same subject without permission from the Association.

12. There shall be no talking or whispering in time of public speech, nor shall any reflection be cast upon the speaker.

13. No member shall absent himself from the Association without first obtaining permission from the body, or Moderator; and the Moderator shall only have power to act while the body is not in session. The Association is not considered closed until after the farewell sermon is preached.

14. If any member shall break the rules of this Constitution he shall be immediately reprovved by the Moderator.

15. It is the business of the Association—1st, to provide for the general union of the churches; 2d, to keep up a correspondence with associations of the same faith and order, that the chain of communication may be preserved among the churches; 3d, to give the churches the best advice in matters of difficulty, and if the communion between any of the sister churches be broken, to inquire into the cause of the breach and use the best means to remove the difficulty, but if the breach cannot be made up, to withdraw from any church whom they shall look upon as unsound in principle or disorderly in practice, until she be excommunicated; 4th, to admit any of the brethren in the ministry as assistants, if they shall deem it to be necessary; 5th, to appoint a Clerk to keep the records of every meeting of the Association, and to see that he is properly remunerated for his services; 6th, to have the minutes read and corrected, if need be, before the Association rises, and have them printed if they think proper; 7th, to amend this plan of government at any time when a majority of the Association shall deem it necessary; 8th, to adjourn to any time or place considered most proper.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

ARTICLE 1. We believe in one true and living God, and that there is a Trinity of Persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; and yet there are not three Gods but one God—Mark xiii. 32, Mat. iii. 16, 17; xxiii. 19; 1 Tim. i. 2, 5; Exod. xx. 1, 3; John i. 1, 4; v. 23; x. 30.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God, and that they are the only rules of faith and practice.—2 Tim. iii. 16, 17; 2 Pet. i. 21; 2 Sam. xxiii. 2; Rev. xxii. 18, 19.

3. We believe in the fall of Adam, and the imputation of his sin to his posterity; in the corruption of human nature, and the impotency of man to recover himself by his own free will and ability.—Isa. i. 5, 6; Psa. xiv. i. 3; Rom. v. 12; John vi. 44; 1 Cor. xv. 20, 1; Job xiv. 57; Eph. ii. 8, 10.

4. We believe in the everlasting love of God to his people, and the eternal election of a definite number of the human race to grace and glory; and that there was a covenant of grace of redemption made between the Father and the Son before the world began, in which their salvation is secure, and they in particular are redeemed.—Jer. xxi. 3; John xv. 16, 17; Isa. xi. 8, 9; Eph. i. 4, 5, 11; Acts xiii. 48; 2 Thess. ii. 13; 1 Pet. i. 2; Rom. viii. 29, 30; Rom. ix. 11, 12, 23; xi. 4, 7; 2 Tim. ii. 9.

5. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the righteousness of Christ imputed to them.—Rom. iii. 21, 5, 56; Psa. xiv; John x. 9, 15; Rom. v. 1, 10; 1 Cor. i. 30.

6. We believe that all those who are chosen of God in Christ will be effectually called, regenerated, sanctified and supported by the Spirit and power of God so that they shall persevere in grace, and not one of them be finally lost.—John x. 29, 30; vi. 37; Phil. i. 6; 1 Peter i. 3, 9; Heb. vi. 16, 20; John xvii. 2, 3; 2 Tim. i. 9, 10; Tit. iv. 4, 7; Eph. ii. 45; Rom. viii. 28, 31.

7. We believe that good works are the fruits of faith; that they follow after justification, and that they only justify us in the sight of men, and are only evidences of our christianity.—Eph. ii. 10; James ii. 13; iii. 13; 1 Pet. ii. 3, 5; Mat. v. 16.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, and a General Judgment; and that the happiness of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.—Mark xii. 24, 27; 2 Cor. v. 10; 1 Cor. xv. 12, 29; Acts xvii. 31; Mat. xxv. 46; John v. 28, 29; Thess. i. 7, 10.

9. We believe that the Church of Christ is a visible congregation of baptized believers, who have gained christian fellowship with each other; and that immersion is the only scriptural mode of baptism.—Rom. vi.

10. We believe that Jesus Christ is the great Head of his Church, and only Lawgiver, and that the government is with the body, and is the privilege of each individual; and that the discipline of the church is intended for the reclamation of those christians who may be disorderly either in principle or practice, and must be faithfully kept up for God's glory and the peace and unity of the Church.

11. We believe that Water Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of the Lord, and are to be continued until his second coming.

12. We believe that none but those regularly baptized, and who are in fellowship with the church, have a right to commune at the Lord's Table.
