Adjourned for dinner.

Reconvened at 2 p. m.

Sermon by Rev. W. C. Taylor on Stewardship.
Letters from churches read.

Resolutions were offered by Rev. C. J. Bruner as follows:

RESOLVED, that we express to the Fellowship church, the pastor, and others our appreciation of the hospitality extended to us during the sittings of this body, and that we pray that this labor of love may be blessed of God to their furtherance in the Gospel.

RESOLVED, that the clerk be instructed to contract for printing 400 copies of minutes of our Association and the Associational Executive Committee be authorized to fix compensation for services of the clerk. Adopted.

An additional section to our constitution was offered by C. M. Ray, as follows:

"This Association shall take an offering during its sessions to defray the expenses of the Executive Committee for printing, postage, etc." Adopted.

The constitution and articles of faith will not be reprinted in the minutes this year. For these see minutes of 1919. When the constitution shall be again printed the above new section should be numbered Sec. 10.

Owing to the enormous cost of printing the clerk of the Association, with the endorsement of the Chairman of the Executive Committee, has thought best to give a brief outline of matters contained in the reports, thus saving considerable cost.

The report on missions and the 75 Million Campaign by Rev. John Dicks was able, and optimistic. It dealt with missions, home foreign and state, and with the 75 Million Campaign fund, the purpose of which is to foster greatly enlarged missionary and benevolent enterprises.

Rev. John Dicks also read the Sunday School report which appealed to our church workers as of extraordinary importance.

The report on publications by Rev. C. J. Bruner, stressed the importance of the Bible, the "Florida Baptist Witness" and "Home and Foreign Fields."

The report on the Baptist Orphanage at Arcadia, Florida, showed a continuous healthy growth; that the property is valued at $50,000.00 with five buildings, 80 acres of land, and ideal Christian influence; that the children in this home nearly all become Christians; and are trained to be self-supporting; that the home is supported by ten per cent. of Florida's campaign fund, and supplemental gifts in the way of money, clothing and provisions.

The report on Temperance showed the great advance of the cause in the acceptance of the 18th Amendment to the Federal Constitution by 45 states of the Union, and the importance of a defensive fight to maintain unimpaired the "Volstead Enforcement Law." It called upon Christian people to awaken to the need of better enforcement of our liquor laws, and that with God's help we hope yet to have a sober and law abiding people.

The report on Christian Education showed much advance by the denomination; commended our schools, and colleges, and showed how Christian Education in our own institutions is not only of vital importance but that it is indispensable. Part of the 75 Million fund will be wisely used in fostering and enlarging.

Following the report of the Committee on Nominations containing recommendations, the following names were accepted for appointment: Executive Committee for the ensuing year: Rev. John Dicks, Rev. C. J. Bruner, Rev. W. R. White, C. M. Ray, C. A. Barrow, John Newsome and Rev. J. R. Eubanks.

The committee selected Rev. W. R. White to attend the next Southern Baptist Convention. To attend the next State Convention: Rev. W. R. White, Rev. J. R. Eubanks, Rev. C. J. Bruner, R. H. Carver, Dr. G. B. Smithson, C. M. Ray and A. A. Chambers; for member of the State Board of Missions, Rev. W. R. White; Chairman of the Layman's Committee, E. A. McColskey; that the next place of meeting be with the Elim church at a time to be fixed by the executive committee and that Rev. J. R. Eubanks preach the introductory sermon.

The committee on Deceased Members reported 10 deaths and recommended that a memorial page be set apart in the minutes.

Owing to the press of other matters reports of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Layman's Committee were not presented.

On motion it was decided that at the time and place for our next Union meeting, a Sunday School Institute will be conducted instead at Mt. Carmel church, the 5th Sunday in January, 1921, and Saturday before, to convene at 10 a. m.

Adjourned after the song "Bless be the tie that binds."

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION MEETING

A short session of the W. M. U. was held Sunday afternoon. Owing to the absence of the President Mrs. Peelman was asked to preside and gave a short talk.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Miss Jennie Camp, President; Mrs. C. M. Ray, Secretary.

The Association was divided into four districts and the following superintendents elected:

District No. 1—Mrs. J. N. Howell, with Old Providence, First Providence, Philippi, Ft. White, Elim and Shiloh churches.

District No. 2—Mrs. Kate Carver with Athens, Mt. Beulah, Wellborn, Fellowship, Mt. Pleasant and Pleasant Hill churches.

District No. 3—Miss Julia Crouch, Watertown, Lulu, Bethlehem, Hopeful and Guilford churches.

District No. 4—Mrs. J. R. Eubanks; Hopewell, Mt. Carmel and Oak Grove churches.

Miss Camp will also do superintendents work in White Springs, Lake City and Mt. Zion churches.

Reports from a number of societies were sent in showing good work being done. The most important items in these reports will be found in one of the statistical tables.
