NEW PASTOR FOR BAPTIST CHURCH HERE

Will Deliver Initial Sermon On Next Sunday Morning

"Announcement was made today that Rev. Jesse F. Ray, pastor of the Ashland, Ala., Baptist church, has arrived in Milton to take over the pastorate of the local Baptist church. Rev. Ray has served the Ashland church for the past six years and comes to Milton highly recommended by the Baptist people of that city.

"Rev. Ray will deliver his initial sermons Sunday morning and evening. All members of the church are invited to be on hand to welcome the new pastor.

"Rev. Ray is married and has five children. He expects to move his family here as soon as the parsonage can be repaired."
