KLONDYKE.

Special to The Journal.

Klondyke, Dec. 27.—There will be special services in the Baptist church Sunday, December 31st. Rev. J. W. Senterfitt, of Pensacola, will preach at 11 a. m., after which Rev. Arthur J. Ransley will be ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry.

The ordinary council, or presbytery will consist of Rev. E. R. Pendleton, Rev. J. W. Senterfitt, Rev. J. R. Abbott, and Rev. H. Kierce.

Mr. Ransley is well known here, having lived here for eight years. He is a graduate of Elgin, Ill., High School, and of the Elgin Academy, a branch of the Northwestern University of Illinois, and also a student in the University of Chicago. We expect to hear great things from this young brother. He is pastor of the Olive Baptist church.

BAPTIST REVIVAL SERVICES, MOLINO

Molino, Fla., Aug. 10.—The series of special revival services at the Molino Baptist church commenced tonight and will continue through next week. The attendance at the opening service was very gratifying and it is believed that the revival will prove highly successful.

The services are being conducted by Rev. I. I. Roberts, who has just closed a very successful series of meetings at the Pleasant Grove Baptist church, near Fort Barrancas.

Rev. Mr. Roberts is well known in Molino, having been pastor here for two years before going to Wildwood, Fla.

Rev. A. J. Ransley, of Cantonment, who is pastor of the Molino Baptist church, is assisting Rev. Roberts in the revival and they have planned a series of meetings of unusual interest.

Rev. Arthur J. Ransley, pastor of the Klondyke and Olive Baptist churches, will leave Pensacola today for a month's vacation. He will visit friends in Northern Illinois and Indiana, spending most of the time in his old home in Elgin, Ill. During his absence, Rev. R. R. Beal will have the care of the Klondike church, and Rev. Ira I. Roberts will have the oversight of the Olive church. Mr. Ransley will return to Pensacola in time for the Baptist Association, which meets in Pensacola, Oct. 3rd.
