

Charles Rentz Obituary

Funeral service for the Rev. Charles Edward Rentz, 88, Ormond Beach, who passed away peacefully at home Sunday, February 4, 2007, will be held at Westside Baptist Church, 777 Colfax Dr., Daytona Beach, on Thursday, February 8, at 12 noon with the Rev. Ernest Howard and the Rev. Michael Henry officiating. Friends may call and pay their respects Thursday, February 8, from 11 a.m. until the time of the service at the church. The Rev. Rentz had been an ordained Baptist minister for 63 years. He was well loved by all who knew him and will be remembered for his humility, compassion for others, love for his fellow man, and ministering and witnessing to others about the love of Jesus Christ. He attended the Baptist Bible Institute in Graceville, Fla., and has served as pastor of Westside Baptist Church in Elba, Ala., First Baptist Church of Southport, Fla., First Baptist Church of Waldo, Fla., and Rima Ridge Baptist Church, Ormond Beach. He also served as interim pastor at North Peninsula Baptist Church, Ormond By The Sea and Westside Baptist Church, Daytona Beach. He was moderator at the Halifax Baptist Association and active in the Southern Baptist Convention and mission work. The Rev. Rentz is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Mildred Hunter Rentz; daughter, Judith Marie Henry; son, Ray Eugene Rentz; grandson, Clifton Edward Evans, granddaughter, Sharon Koch, grandson, David Rentz; great-granddaughter, Shana Koch; and his two sisters, Betty Hamrick and June Hayes. <https://www.legacy.com/us/obituaries/news-journalonline/name/charles-rentz-obituary?id=25383303>

The Daytona Beach News-Journal

Thu, Aug 06, 1992 · Page 43

C.E. Rentzes

Mildred and the Rev. C.E. Rentz, Dix Avenue, Ormond Beach, celebrated their 50th anniversary with a dinner at Rima Ridge Baptist Church, where he is pastor, arranged by their daughter and son-in-law. The Rentzes were married Aug. 2, 1942, in Bunnell.

The Rev. Rentz, born in Waycross, Ga., has been in the ministry 47 years. His wife, the former Mildred Hunter, was born in Port Orange. She works at Dillard's. They have two children, Judi Dickey, Merritt Island, and Ray Rentz, Orlando; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.