Hi Penny,

Here's a little more.... If you need something else, please let me know.

Roger Charles Richards was born in Birmingham, Alabama to Wiley and Betty Richards in 1957. He grew up primarily in Graceville, Florida, graduating from high school in 1975. He graduated from Samford University (B.A., 1978) and attended New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS), where he earned his M.R.E. (1980). He served as pastor of Hollins Baptist Church in Hollins, Alabama before returning to NOBTS where he earned an M.Div. (1984). He entered the Navy in 1984 and served for twenty years as a Chaplain serving with both the Navy and Marine Corps. While on active duty Roger earned his D.Min. from Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida (1994). Upon retiring from the Navy, Roger returned to Graceville and began teaching on the campus of The Baptist College of Florida (BCF) as an Adjunctive Professor. After earning his Ph.D. from Florida State University (2008), he joined BCF as a full-time faculty member and currently serves as the Dean of Students. He is the author of History of Southern Baptists. He married Sandra Messer of Cropwell, Alabama in 1977, and he and Sandra have twin sons, Jason and Jeremy. He has four grandsons and one granddaughter. In addition to his position at BCF, Roger has served as interim pastor in multiple churches in Alabama, Florida, and Georgia.

Sandra,
Would it be possible for us to get a vita on Roger? I need a little bit more than what is on the BCF website for the FBHS files.

Thanks
Penny
