Church has embarked on a bond program in order to finish construction of the church building on Santa Barbara Boulevard in Golden Gate.

At the present time, the congregation is meeting in a unit of Santa Barbara Square, 2791 55th St. SW. The 2.76-acre site for the church was purchased in 1986 in response to a growth in the congregation. Construction began the following year on a 5,500-square-foot worship and education building, using money donated by members as well as funds borrowed from the Florida Baptist Convention and Florida Baptist Credit Union.

The Rev. Kingsley S. Roberts is the new pastor of the church, which operates under the direction of the First Baptist Church in Bonita Springs. Roberts attended the Baptist Bible Institute in Graceville, Fla., as well as going to many seminars and classes conducted by the Georgia Baptist Convention.

Second Lt. Kingsley S. Roberts Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Kingsley S. Roberts of 52 Hollister St., has arrived for duty at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska.

Roberts, a pilot with the 21st Tactical Fighter Wing, was previously assigned at Williams Air Force Base, Ariz.

In a double ring ceremony Miss Cynthia Jean Roberts became the bride of Joe Thomas Logan at 2 p.m. Saturday. Rev. R. L. Spotts officiated at the double ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church at Bonita Springs. The church was decorated with vases of white pompons and potted palms. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Kimberly Bullard, soloist, and Mrs. James McCollum, organist.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley S. Roberts of Bonita Springs. Mr. Logan is a son of Joe B. Logan of Valdosta, Ga., and the late Mrs. Logan.

White Brocade Crown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of white brocade designed with a basque bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant floor length skirt. Her full length veil of silk illusion was attached to an open crown of white brocade. The bride's gown was made by her grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Bohm. She carried a Bible and white roses.

Attendants were Mrs. James Wilmet, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Christine Roberts, sister of the bride, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Ronald Lyles, Mrs. Frank Liles Jr., Mrs. Frank Logan and Miss Priscilla Russell. They were gowned in street length dresses of green rayon blend with elbow length sleeves, round necklines and bell skirts. Their short veils were attached to matching circlets. They carried nosegays of white mums.

Frank Logan of Naples was his brother's best man. Ushers were J. B. Martin, James Roberts, Jeffrey Roberts, Preston Floyd, John Roberts and David Ross.

Crystal Appointments

A miniature bridal couple topped the tiered cake at a reception given by the bride's parents in the Youth Building. Crystal appointments were used on the bride's table, overlaid with a white linen cloth. White tapers were in crystal holders. White wedding bells and white mums were placed at vantage points.

Miss Donna Hall attended the bride's book. Assisting with the hospitalities were the Intermediate Girls Auxiliary.

For a honeymoon to Rainbow Springs, Mrs. Logan donned a pink linen two piece suit with
