Lake Alfred Baptist Accepts Pastorate Of Gibsonton Church

LAKE ALFRED—The Rev. E. P. Robinson, pastor of First Baptist Church, has accepted the pastorate of First Baptist Church of Gibsonton, a church spokesman here reports.

The pastor, a former Air Force glider pilot, has served the local church for four years, during which the building program has been completed and all indebtedness reportedly has been cleared.

A graduate of Howard College, Birmingham, the Rev. Mr. Robinson served several pastorates in Alabama. He holds a B. D. degree from Louisville Seminary.

His wife, the former Louise Howard of Birmingham, is a graduate of Howard College and active in church affairs. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have two daughters, ages seven and eight.

Gibsonton Pastor Ends His First Year

Rev. E. P. Robinson recently completed his first anniversary as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Gibsonton.

Robinson said that during his term the church has purchased personally bound hymnals, sponsored a program of finance which has greatly increased the church's missions ability, and has sponsored a junior baseball team.
