

Rev. J. B. Rouse Resigns Pastorate

The Rev. J. B. Rouse, pastor of Alford Baptist Church for the past seven years, has resigned to accept a call from the First Baptist Church at Lake City, to become pastor of The College Manor Chapel, a mission sponsored by the First Baptist of Lake City.

The chapel is located in the eastern suburbs of Lake City.

Mr. Rouse's resignation is effective Feb. 26, the family will move to their new home Feb. 23.

Special Services Slated For Alford Baptists

July 30, is the date set for the Homecoming and Dedication Services at the Alford Baptist Church, according to an announcement by Rev. J. B. Rouse, pastor.

The public is cordially invited to attend these twin services which are scheduled to begin Sunday morning at 10:55, and continue in to the afternoon, after dinner is served on the church grounds at 12:30.

The Morning message by Rev. Rouse will be the feature of the Homecoming Services, and the Dedication sermon by Rev. Jack L. Bilbo will close the day of