

RUSS, MILTON M., 72, of Hahira, Georgia, died Tuesday, October 12, 2004 at Smith Northview Hospital. Mr. Russ was born in Memphis, TN on December 2, 1931 to the late Matthew and Katie Russ and had lived in Hahira since 1997. He was a graduate of the University of Florida where he played football for the Florida Gators and also played pro football for the Orlando Bronco's. Mr. Russ was also a graduate of Tennessee Temple Divinity School and was a retired Baptist Minister. He was a member of the Conway Baptist Church in Orlando. Survivors include his wife, Jerrilyn Rollins Russ of Hahira; his daughter, Rebecca West of Cocoa Beach; his stepchildren, Alan Clendenin of Tampa, Kimela Titone of Ormond Beach; his grandchildren, Corey Saussy, Jessica Brown, Nikki and Killian Brown; step grandchildren, Trey Titone, Tyler Clendenin, Brianna Clendenin and Brynn Titone; a son-in-law, Joe Brown of Orlando; his mother-in-law, Virginia Lewis of Hahira; his brother-in-law, Mike Lewis of Hahira; and aunts, Sylvia Parker, Fron Johnson and Verna Glass. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Ramona Brown.

Published in the Orlando Sentinel on Oct. 14, 2004

Milton M. Russ (1931-2004) was born in Memphis, TN to Matthew and Katie Russ. Russ was a graduate of the University of Florida where he played football and Tennessee Temple Divinity School. He also played pro football for the Orlando Broncos. Russ served as pastor of First Baptist Church, Conway. At the time of his death Russ was married to Jerrilyn Rollins Russ and he and his first wife had two daughters.