Randy Umberger

Pastor

Randy has been with Mount Pisgah since June of 2008. He was born in Jacksonville, Florida and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. He came to know Christ at a young age and began his work in the ministry at the age of 16. He has pastored churches in North Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Before coming to Mount Pisgah, Randy and his family served as missionaries in the Central American country of Honduras for three years. They trained national Pastors, managed feeding programs, as well as provided medical and other physical needs among the people in hard to reach places. They worked in the jungles of La Mosquitia, and he served as Vice President to a second division professional soccer team.

Randy has a B.A. from Luther Rice Seminary, a M.A. from North American School of Theology, and an honorary D.D. from Emmanuel Seminary in Kota, Rajasthan, North India. He has been married to his lovely wife Denise for 40 years and they have three beautiful daughters; Anna (husband Derrick), Rebekah, and Rachel, as well as one perfect granddaughter!

Currin-Umberger Vows Exchanged

Faye Denise Currin and the Rev. Randy Dean Umberger exchanged marriage vows at two o'clock in the afternoon on August 28 at the Piney Grove Baptist Church in Fuquay-Varina.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. Paul Jones of Fuquay-Varina and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Currin of Bunnlevel. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Umberger of Rocky Mount.

The Rev. C. Paul Jones, step-father of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Danny Moody, organist, Robin Umberger, soloist, and a trumpeter from the North Carolina Symphony. Songs were "O Perfect Love," "The Song of Ruth," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. The lace-covered Bible carried by the bride was the bridegroom's first Bible. She also carried a lace-trimmed handkerchief which had belonged to her great-grandmother, Mrs. Esser Currin.

Mrs. Tammy Simpson, sister of the bride, was

After the couple cut the first slice of wedding cake, guests were served a variety of dainty foods, wedding cake, and punch. The cake cutting was catered by Mrs. Bonnie McIver.

The couple chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

Parties & Showers

On her wedding day, the bride was honored at a breakfast at The Radisson in Raleigh's Downtown Mall by Mrs. Sandra King, Mrs. Linda Stewart and Mrs. Jean Wheeler. Others attending were her mother, Mrs. C. Paul Jones, and her sister, Mrs. Tammy Simpson.

Mrs. Jean Wheeler was hostess on July 8 for a pantry shower in her home.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Piney Grove Baptist Church gave a miscellaneous shower on July 17.

The Currin family gave a miscellaneous shower on July 18 at the New Hope Presbyterian Church fellowship hall.

A miscellaneous shower was given by friends of the couple at the Oakview Baptist Church in Rocky Mount.

Karen Bunte hosted a lingerie shower on August 12.

Employees of Hudson-Belk in Cary entertained the bride on August 23 with a miscellaneous shower.

Wens

Mrs. Tammy Simpson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Other attendants were Karla Jones, sister of the bride; Robin Umberger and Dawn Umberger, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Charles Taylor of Rocky Mount, Larry Garner of Fuquay-Varina, and Jeff Jones, brother of the bride.

Kay Buchanan presided at the register. Lori Stewart and Renee King gave the guests rice bags.

The bride is a graduate of Fuquay-Varina High School, attended Wake Technical College, and is presently employed at Hudson-Belk, Cary Village Mall.

Cary Village Mall.

The bridegroom is a graduate of SouthWest Edgecombe High School, attended Wesleyan College, and is president of the Randy Umberger Evangelistic Association. He will graduate in 1983 from Luther Rice Seminary.

Following a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains, the couple will reside in Fuquay-Varina.

Cake Cutting

After the rehearsal on Friday evening, the bride's parents hosted a cake cutting at Kinton's Hut in Fuquay-Varina.
