Trinity Baptist calls pastor from Pensacola

Rev. G. Roland Rabon, former pastor of the Woodlawn Baptist Church of Pensacola, has been called to preach at the Trinity Baptist Church of Marianna.

He succeeds the Rev. Rea Mangum, who recently resigned to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Blountstown.

Rev. Rabon, 32, is a graduate of William Carey College in Hattiesburg, Miss. with a B.A. degree. He majored in sociology and minored in religion and philosophy. He received his Master's degree in theology from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He has pastored for 13 years in Mississippi and Florida.

Mrs. Rabon is also a graduate of William Carey College with a B.A. degree in English. She has taught English for the past five years in Louisiana and Florida.

Rev. and Mrs. Rabon are special workers for the Church Training Department of the Florida Baptist Convention. Mrs. Rabon works with youth leaders and Rev. Rabon works with adult church training leaders.

The Rabons enjoy tennis, fishing, hunting, horseback riding and "anything that involves our children: John, 6, and Faith, 3."

The Rabons will move here Saturday and begin his ministry on Sunday. "I'm looking forward to our move here, and my invitation is for everyone to come and grow with us," said Rev. Rabon.
