Baptist Minister Here Will Resign Today; Plans New Work

The Rev. John H. Rich, pastor of Grant Park Baptist Church, will resign his pastorate after services today, he announced yesterday.

Mr. Rich, who has been pastor of the Grant Park Church for three years, will go into evangelistic work and has four months of revivals already scheduled for this Summer.

During his pastorate, Mr. Rich has enlarged the auditorium of the church and during 1946 his congregation added 100 new members.

night along with testimonies. Services begin each night, except Saturday, at 7:45 P. M.

ADULT COUNCIL PROGRAM PLANNED

A Learning For Life Institute will be presented Tuesday through Friday of this week by the Adult Council of the Seminole Heights Methodist Church. It will be designed to meet the interests and needs of the adults of the church and each night a speaker will present a different topic.

The schedule of speakers is:

Tuesday, The Home, Center of Christian Learning, by Dr. E. C. Nance, president of the University of Tampa.

Wednesday, The Church School, a

The Rev. John H. Rich, Baptist evangelist, opened a tent revival at Falkenburg and Williams Road on June 4. Last Sunday, two months and 13 days later, the tent revival was the new East Side Baptist Church meeting in its own building. The new building will be dedicated tomorrow at all-day services, including a baptismal and ordination of deacons. Mr. Rich, who has held several Baptist pastorates in Tampa, said the East Side church will seek membership in the Tampa Bay Baptist Association this Fall. The picture shows Mr. Rich (center) and some members in front of their new church.
