Vineland

Baptists

Organize

Vineland Baptist Mission, sponsored by the Florida Shores Baptist Church, will be constituted into a fully organized and autonomous Southern Baptist church Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Director of metro-missions, the Rev. Tom Draper said that the service will be moderated by the Rev. Mitchell Maddox, vice moderator for the Wekiwa Baptist Association and charge to the new church will be given by the Rev. Girod Cole, pastor of College Park Baptist.

PRAYER OF dedication will be by the Rev. Elvin Hall, pastor of First Baptist of Pine Castle and chairman of the missions committee for Wekiwa Baptist.

After the constituting of the church, the new congregation will extend a call to the Rev. Earl Ryals to be pastor. He has been serving as pastor of the mission and has led in the growing ministry during the past year.
