This, That and the Other

Businessman Eugene Petty Enters Southern Seminary

Eugene Petty, 44, Training Union director and a deacon in Miami Shores Church, Miami, is leaving to enter the School of Religious Education at Southern Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Long active in virtually every phase of church life, Petty is experienced in retail merchandising and management, purchasing and manufacturer sales and distribution, and has for the past nine years operated the Gene Petty Brokerage Co., Miami, as a broker in food products.

The Pettrys have two sons, 13 and 21.

Hinton, Now Pastor Emeritus

On July 25, following his delivery of the morning sermon, in the absence of the pastor, W. J. Runnels, G. T. Hinton was informed of his election as pastor emeritus of First Church, Wewahatcha.

He had previously served the church 12 years as pastor and nine as an active member. He was presented with a Bible, fittingly inscribed, as a token of appreciation for his 21 years of service.

On the same day Mrs. Sarah Morgan was honored with a gift of luggage and tribute of appreciation for her 32 years of active service.

A reception was held for the Hinton and Mrs. Morgan after the evening service.

McGlamery Ordained

Stephen McGlamery was ordained to the Gospel ministry by Central Church, West Hollywood on July 11. Pine Crest Church, Niceville, where McGlamery is pastor, asked for his ordination.

D. C. Spillman, pastor of the host church, was moderator of the ordaining council.

Participating in the ordination were: Ewell B. Chalker, Ft. Lauderdale, ordination sermon; Bobby R. Watson, W. Hollywood, presentation of Bible; and D. C. Spillman, presentation of certificate.

McGlamery is a student at Baptist Bible Institute.

Homecoming at Parrish

First Church, Parrish will observe Homecoming August 8. Edward Steward, former pastor, will be the morning speaker. There will be a basket dinner, followed by a sing.

Former pastors, members and friends are invited to attend.

Murray Leaves Gainesville To Accept Largo Pastorate

A. Darrell Murray, pastor of Westside Church, Gainesville for the past two years, resigned to accept the pastorate of 25th Church, Largo effective July 25.

Under his leadership the church was organized from a mission sponsored by First Church, Gainesville and there have been 213 additions. The budget has been raised from $17,000 to $35,000.

Murray has pastored churches in Jacksonville Beach and Ft. Lauderdale.

They have a son, age 4, and a daughter, three months.

Joins Ft. Pierce Staff

Arthur H. Carter has joined the staff of First Church, Ft. Pierce as minister of music.

A native of Jacksonville, he attended the Florida State University School of Music and is a graduate of Southwestern Seminary.

Former churches he has served are: Thomasville Road Church, Tallahassee; Woodlawn Church, Jacksonville; First Church, Quana, Texas; First Church, Lake Worth, Texas; Forest Park Church, Ft. Worth, Texas; and University Church, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Carter is the former Fredra Haas of Live Oak. They have one son, Arthur, Jr., five.

Profits Go to the College

A collection of dynamic, witty and even hilarious comments has been molded into a new book by Jess Moody, pastor of First Church, West Palm Beach.

"Don't Miss It If You Can," published by Word Books, Waco, Texas, is being made available at local book stores and at news stands in many stores.

As he did with his first book, "You Can't Lose for Winning," Dr. Moody announced that all proceeds from the sale of the book will go to the Baptist College building-fund campaign.

Delray Beach Pastor Dies In Memphis, Tennessee

D. Douglas Scrivner, pastor of First Church, Delray Beach for the past three years, died of cancer in Memphis, Tenn. July 18.

Survivors are his wife, Ruth; one son, Dana; and a grandson, Douglas.

Dr. Scrivner left a record of 23 years of pastoral service in Missouri, Arkansas and Tennessee.

For the past year, he was president of the Delray Beach Ministerial Association, and chairman of the Palm Lake Association Budget Committee.

Funeral services were conducted at the church July 21 by his associates, Carl E. Storey and Guy Woodfin. Services were held in Millington, Tenn. July 24.
