Settles, S. G. served as pastor of Garniers Baptist Church, Santa Rosa Baptist Association, 1911.

CAMP WALTON.

Special to The Journal.

Camp Walton, June 6.—W. H. Spivey, who had his leg broken by jumping from his buggy about four weeks ago, is still in the hospital. The doctors who are attending him think another operation is necessary before he can recover. Mr. Spivey's friends at Garniers are in deep sympathy with him and will be glad when he can return home.

Rev. S. G. Settles, pastor of the Garniers church, filled his appointment Saturday night and Sunday. The sermon Sunday at 11 o'clock was greatly enjoyed by some of those present and the writer feels that Rev. Mr. Settles has truly been with Jesus.

E. A. Mooney has returned to his

Preacher Wielding City Marshal Club

Crestview, July 14.—Crestview has a preacher for chief law enforcer, Rev. S. G. Settles having been appointed that position by the city council acting under the new charter. He is now busy enforcing the law without fear of favor, and also is getting after delinquent tax payers.
