

Florida Baptist Historical Society Biography Collection

This link provides the specific resource information which documents and undergirds the biographical resource information on a specific Florida Baptist pastors, church staff or significant laity leaders.

The link you have chosen connects to the specific individual's resource files that provide the basis for information which the Historical Society has used to develop the respective biographical profile. The sources attached may include copies of articles gleaned from back issues of the Florida Baptist Witness and other news publications. Other resources include books, historical journal articles and church histories that are cited as documentation for the biography.

Visit our website at FloridaBaptistHistory.org

Smith, Wallace R. (1907-1980) served as pastor of churches in Tennessee and Florida including First Baptist Church, North Miami, Ojus Baptist Church and Key West Baptist Church. He and his wife, Evelyn Smith had eleven children.

Rev. Smith, Church Founder

A memorial service for the Rev. Wallace R. Smith, founder of the First Baptist Church of North Miami Beach, is scheduled Sunday at the church during the 11 a.m. services.

The Rev. Mr. Smith died Thursday in Crossville, Tenn.

He served at the North Miami Beach church for 14 years, and also had been pastor of churches in Tennessee and in Ojus and Key West.

He was a former member of the Greater Miami Ministerial Association.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyn; 11 children; 29 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and two sisters.

Another service will be Sunday at the Grandview Baptist Church.

The family requests that donations to a memorial fund be made through the First Baptist Church of North Miami Beach.

The Burris Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

that to triple the agency's authorization level would markets as counter to the fight against inflation.

DEATHS

Rev. Wallace Smith Rites Today

Services for the Rev. Wallace R. Smith, a founder of the First Baptist Church of North Miami Beach, will be held today at the church during the 11 a.m. services.

The Rev. Mr. Smith died Thursday in Crossville, Tenn. He was 73.

He served at the North Miami Beach church for 14 years, and also had been a pastor of churches in Tennessee, Ojus and Key West.

He was a former member of the Greater Miami Ministerial Association.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyn; 11 children; 29 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and two sisters.

The family requests that donations to a memorial fund be made through the First Baptist Church of North Miami Beach.

The Burris Funeral Home in Crossville, Tenn., is handling arrangements.

son Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Huberman, a native of Appleton, Wis., had lived in this area for 10 years.

In New Hampshire, she and her husband, Kenneth, owned and operated two children's camps.

In Newton, Mass., she was a board member of the Association for Mentally Ill Children, and co-founder of the Newton Mental Center and the Boston Association for Retarded Children.

She also had been chairwoman of Friends to the Camp Hill Movement, which supports two communities for the adult mentally handicapped, and was on the national board of the organization.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by three daughters, Mary Ann, Marcia and Sylvia; and three grandchildren.

Van Orsdel Coral Gables Chapel handled arrangements.

The Village of
A priceless p
for a comf

★ ★ ★
MONTICELLO PARK — Rev
Wallace R. Smith, pastor of North Miami Beach First Baptist Church, and Mayor Daniel
D. Diefenbach will take part in the Tercentenary service at 8:15 tonight.
Rabbi Abraham Levitan will speak on "300 Years without Tears."