CHURCHES MAKE NEWSCedar Bay Baptist
Reaches 10th Year

Cedar Bay Baptist Church, officially organized in July 1950 under the leadership of Rev. H. L. Steyerman with 36 charter members, is celebrating its 10th anniversary.

Rev. Marvin A. Tyler, who was called to the pastorate in January 1959, will preach at the morning service tomorrow. Dinner will be served on the church grounds at 12:30 p.m., and a program of music will start at 1:30. The Calvary Quartette of St. Augustine will sing.

The church has experienced steady growth over the past 10 years. In October 1958 a new church auditorium was dedicated and is now clear of debt. Since the Rev. Mr. Tyler began his ministry at Cedar Bay, the Sunday school enrollment has increased from 85 to 131 and 39 new members have been added to the church.

Ina Louise Steyerman Marries Mr. Taylor

The marriage of Miss Ina Louise Steyerman and Donald Roosevelt Taylor took place at 8 p.m. yesterday in the First Baptist Church. Rev. H. L. Steyerman Sr., father of the bride, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Steyerman Sr. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Taylor Sr., Alma, Ga.

Miss Louise Turner and Carl Riley, personal friends of the couple, served as organist and soloist, respectively.

Given in marriage by her brother, Leonard Steyerman Jr., the bride had as her matron of honor, Mrs. Everett L. Rogers. Miss Joyce Alvarez, was maid of honor.

Everett Lee Rogers was best man and ushers included James Hewitt, cousin of the bridegroom, St. Augustine; J. H. Villebeuve Jr. and Raymond Sanders.

The bride chose a gown of imported starched chiffon and Chantilly lace over layers of net and taffeta. The fitted Dior bodice was enhanced by a sabrina neckline, embroidered in floral sprays of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The voluminous skirt featured wide diagonal bands of lace and terminated in a circular chapel train. Her finger-tip illusion veil was secured to a tiara of pearls and lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The bridal attendants wore ballerina-length dresses of sea mist organza over matching taffeta with basque waists, round necklines and short shirred sleeves. The bouffant skirts featured bustle backs of organza panels, piped in sea mist, and centered with satin roses. Matching organza headpieces, tipped with pearls, were worn. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of bronze mums encircled with croton leaves, acorns and wheat.

A reception followed in the lower auditorium of the church, after which the newlyweds left on a honeymoon to Ocala, Winter Haven and Alma, Ga. After Sept. 24 they will reside at 9531 Norfolk Blvd.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of Julia Landon High. Mr. Taylor was graduated from Bacon County High, Alma.
