Stancil, Brent served as pastor of churches in Michigan, Texas and Florida including Community Bible Church, Pinellas Park. He and his wife, Valerie Ware Stancil have six children.

Dr. John Walker (Brent) Stancil, after ministering in Michigan and Texas for fifteen years, in 2009 followed God's clear leading to assume the pastorate of Community Bible Baptist Church in Pinellas Park, Florida.

In 2017, Pastor Brent and Valerie founded International Orphanages and Schools (IOS). The mission of IOS is to share Christ, rescue children, and train and equip national pastors and workers while partnering with other NGOs to reach Haiti and the world with the gospel.

Pastor Stancil is married to the former Miss Valerie Ware, and they have four sons—Quinn (Annabell), Collin (Samantha), Grant, and Hutson—and two daughters, Madeline and Maya. They are also blessed with three grandchildren: Harlow, Shiloh, and Scottie. Pastor and Valerie were previously involved in medical foster care and are now adoptive parents who continue to advocate for others to answer God's call to foster care and adoption. Due to their youngest daughter having two heart transplants, the Stancils are also strong advocates for children and families facing medical crises.
