

Florida Baptist Historical Society Biography Collection

This link provides the specific resource information which documents and undergirds the biographical resource information on a specific Florida Baptist pastors, church staff or significant laity leaders.

The link you have chosen connects to the specific individual's resource files that provide the basis for information which the Historical Society has used to develop the respective biographical profile. The sources attached may include copies of articles gleaned from back issues of the Florida Baptist Witness and other news publications. Other resources include books, historical journal articles and church histories that are cited as documentation for the biography.

Visit our website at FloridaBaptistHistory.org

Stapp, Charles N. (1944-2023) was born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama the of Charles and Laura Stapp. He graduated from Baptist Bible Institute of Crestview. He served as pastor of churches in Georgia, Alabama and Florida including Central Baptist Church, Leesburg. Stapp and his wife, Dianne Stapp (d. 2010) (m. 1964) had two children. He married Jane Jones Stapp in 2013.

1 of 3 matches

The Orlando Sentinel
Sat, Feb 20, 1988 · Page 50

2 Baptist churches get pastors the Omatilla church Feb. 14.

Charles Stapp will preach his first sermon at Central Baptist of Leesburg on Sunday morning. He is a graduate of Baptist Bible Institute of Crestview.

A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Stapp came to Leesburg after serving as pastor of First Baptist Church of Sumterville. He also was pastor of Salem Baptist Church in Edison, Ga.

He and his wife, Dianne, have a daughter, Michelle, 18, and a son, David, 20.

> 8 of 15 matches

The Dothan Eagle
Sat, Jun 02, 1984 · Page 6

is invited.

Pastor To Be Installed

The Rev. Charles N. (Chuck) Stapp will be installed as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kinston Sunday at the 11 a.m. services.

A senior at the Baptist Bible Institute, the Rev. Stapp was previously pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church at Edison, Ga. He and wife Diane are from Tuscaloosa and they have a son and daughter.

The public is invited to attend the installation service.

remember the da
traveling musician
come into an area
series of hours would "traing p
sing and read mus

Today, singi
music training ar in schools and
and in some privat but others say the like to learn to sir
for their own enjoy

Charles Newman “Chuck” Stapp, age 78, of Columbiana, AL, passed away on January 23, 2023. Services will be held on Saturday, January 28, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. at Heritage Chapel Funeral Home with Dr. Michael Miller officiating. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service. Burial will follow at Tuscaloosa Memorial Park.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Laura Stapp; his wife, Diane M Stapp and his second wife, Jane Jones Stapp.

He is survived by his son, David W Stapp; daughter, Diana Michelle Talley (Kenny); brother, Dr. Steven A Stapp (Lynda); sisters, Lynn Roulaine and Lauralee Estes (Charles); grandchildren, Joshua Talley (Shelby) and Katelyn Talley; and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Chuck was born February 6, 1944, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He graduated from Tuscaloosa High School in 1962. He married his loving wife Diane on January 18, 1964. They were married for 46 wonderful years. After Diane passed away, he married Jane Jones on May 11, 2013. Chuck was a devoted husband, a wonderful father, and a huge Alabama fan. He didn’t miss an opportunity to yell “Roll Tide” whenever he had a chance.

In his early 30s, Chuck surrendered to full-time ministry and pastored churches in Georgia, Alabama, and Florida. After he retired, he became a member of the First Baptist Church of Columbiana where he taught Sunday School and was an active member of the Senior Adult Group. Chuck was a faithful, committed, and dedicated servant of God and this was seen by anyone that crossed his path. He made it his life’s work to share Jesus with anyone that would listen. He loved effortlessly and always had a smile and kind word for all he met. His sense of humor and caring heart will be missed by all.