

Florida Baptist Historical Society Biography Collection

This link provides the specific resource information which documents and undergirds the biographical resource information on a specific Florida Baptist pastors, church staff or significant laity leaders.

The link you have chosen connects to the specific individual's resource files that provide the basis for information which the Historical Society has used to develop the respective biographical profile. The sources attached may include copies of articles gleaned from back issues of the Florida Baptist Witness and other news publications. Other resources include books, historical journal articles and church histories that are cited as documentation for the biography.

Visit our website at FloridaBaptistHistory.org

Steinbach, Paul is the son of Bob and Donna Steinbach. He graduated from the Florida Baptist Theological College. Steinbach served as pastor of Emporia Baptist Church, 1993-1994 and now serves as pastor of Coastal Baptist Church, Jacksonville. He married Cynthia Falke Steinbach in 1991.

COASTAL, JACKSONVILLE (Jacksonville)
750 Girvin Rd, Jacksonville, FL 32225-3025
Phone: (904) 221-6529
Senior Pastor Paul Steinbach

Cynthia Marie Falke, Robert Paul Steinbach

Cynthia Marie Falke and Robert Paul Steinbach were united in marriage recently during a 3 p.m. double ring ceremony performed at Calvary Baptist Church by the Rev. David Beauchamp, pastor. Shirley Mathews was organist, and Tamra West, Will Butler and Stephanie Barber were soloists.

The bride is the daughter of Robert and Donna Falke, 116 Osage Road, and the bridegroom is the son of Robert and Dona Steinbach, Yankeetown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with Juliet sleeves with roses, Sabrina neckline embellished with illusion net, and lace, with bodice detailed with lace and pearls. The basque waistline extended into a full, chapel-length train and it was adorned with matching pearls and iridescents.

The bride's headdress was a crown of seed pearls, sequins and satin miniature roses, and it secured a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of red and white roses with baby's-breath.

Mrs. Joey Hudgins was matron of honor. She wore a tea-length gown of red fashioned with lace work and scalloped trim at the neckline, V-back and looped satin bow that crowned a low back peplum. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses with baby's-breath.

Also attending the bride and gowned like the honor attendant were Mrs. Gordon Keller, Mrs. David Carpenter, Marnie Cooper, Julie Hudnall and Michelle Plozner.

The bride's bouquet and all the attendants' bouquets were made by the bride's mother.

Heather McCloskey was flower girl, and Dillon Huff, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Bryan Jones was best man; groomsmen were Gordon Keller, Jody Boothe, Gene Bennett, Terry Boothe and

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT PAUL STEINBACH
(Cynthia Marie Falke)

Marshal Thompson; and ushers were Glenn Fischer and Dwayne Jarriel.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, followed at the church fellowship hall.

After a wedding trip to Freeport, The Bahamas, the newlyweds are residing at 1100 Cherrytree Road.

EMPORIA BAPTIST Church recently celebrated its 66th homecoming with a day of activities, including recognition of Estelle Peterson, the only charter member in attendance, and the ordination service for two new deacons, Mike Layfield and Ronnie Ward.

Taking part in the afternoon activities was Anna Belle Dillard, who read the church history.

The ordination service was conducted by the church pastor, the Rev. William A. Martin, and the Rev. George Dunn, Seminole Baptist Association director of missions.

Guest speaker for the morning worship service was a former pastor, the Rev. Paul Steinbach of Gainesville.

Barberville News

The Rev. Paul Steinbach of St. Augustine is the new pastor of Emporia Baptist Church. Steinbach is a graduate of the Florida Theological Seminary in Graceville. He and his wife, Cindy, will live in the church parsonage adjacent to the church.

Emporia Baptist Church will celebrate its 63rd Homecoming June 27. The church, started as a mission from First Baptist Church, Barberville, in 1930, will have the Rev. Armando Silverio as guest speaker for the morning service. There will be several groups providing music in the afternoon.

The Rev. William A. Martin, left, and his wife, Mary, welcome the Rev. Paul Steinbach, right, a former pastor of the church, and his wife, Cindy, to the 66th homecoming of Emporia Baptist Church. Steinbach served as pastor in 1993-94.

nces

even about their particular how as with Braclet. s mother said she ld bless the two loundtree, assis-

ley London Kite
ed law enforce-s they were arey were ever of-
They admitted
— Braclet shot

B-10

Bumpy ride to grandma's takes to stage

Four little sisters have to spend Christmas with their grandmother. The problem is they aren't too keen on going to Grandma's house. That's the premise of "Spoiled Milk and Burnt Cookies," a comedy musical written, produced and choreographed by a 14-year-old.

Yes, Lana Taylor is a 14-year-old ninth-grader in the cinematic arts program at Douglas Anderson School of the Arts.

Taylor

What's more, her play is being staged at her church. It's being performed from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at Coastal Baptist Church, 750 Girvin Road.

Lana wrote the musi-

Lana wrote the musical by hand with copious notes, details, costume drawings and set design. Then the avid playwright spent hours typing the production into her computer.

Though told in a humorous way, there's a serious side to the play. The sisters begrudgingly learn about Christ while singing and dancing their way through the drudgery of their experience with Grandma.

At first the kids loathe the experience until they start to bond with their grandma over the teachings of Jesus.

"I love my characters and gave them each very distinct personalities to cajole, use sarcasm and wit, and sing and dance their way out of Christmas at Grandma's," Lana said. "But at the end of the play, they all love and appreciate each other and the meaning of Christmas and Jesus. It's a kumbaya moment, but it's really funny getting there."

Milkins made the ar.

nishing type”
as unheard of eague.

ademies. It’s me that these ally hard, but

B-10

Perry

Lana has the support of her parents, Eric and Tamara Taylor; sister Halle, who is in the play; and pastor, the Rev. Paul Steinbach, in putting on the production. The 12 cast members range in age from 7 to 14.

Steinbach and wife, Cindy, said they are delighted to have the production, which is free to the public, at their church.

“We look forward to welcoming the community to this phenomenal effort,” he said. “This is serious business, but thoughtful and funny at the same time.”

For more information visit spoiledmilkandburntcookies.com.

Keen, and family.

Visiting here with the Rev. Paul Steinbach and wife Cindy during the holiday season were his parents, Bob and Dona Steinbach of Yankee-town, and her parents, Bob and Donna Falke of St. Augustine.