REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DECEASED MINISTERS AND DEACONS. "D."

Dear Brethren.—Since our last session, God in His Providence, has removed from the walls of Zion, one of his faithful watchmen. Our Brother Mark Strickland has recently been called to his reward, and we trust, his reward will be, that which the Scripture award to those who have turned many to righteousness. Brethren our ranks are being thined, "Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into the harvest, Brother Strickland has left a large and afflicted family, in somewhat indigent circumstances. What is the duty of this body under these circumstances? We, as a body, tender our condolence to the bereaved widow and afflicted family and friends.

Also, quite recently, God has removed from us our much esteemed and beloved Brother Deacon, Elisha P. Smith. He was extensively known in our midst, as an intelligent, cosistent and active christian, ready for every good word and work. Brother Smith was a Deacon, who used his office well, and he did emphatically "purchase to himself, a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus," and in this affliction, we feel to sympathise deeply with his afflicted family, and tender to them, our sincere and heart-felt condolence, and mingle with them our tears and prayers, that the Great Head of the Church, would sanctify this bereavement and affliction, to their and our eternal good. B. S. FULLER, Chairman.
